Emerging Clinical Applications of Psychedelic Medicines

Featuring: Rick Barnett, PsyD, MS
Thursday, July 13 | 5:00 p.m. PT

In this presentation and Q&A session, Dr. Barnett will describe various psychedelic compounds, their known mechanisms of action, and their various subjective effects. He'll also discuss the potential therapeutic benefits and risks of psychedelic medicines on a variety of clinical conditions.

Ketamine in Treatment of Mental Health Conditions: A Primer

Featuring: Julie Myers, PsyD, MS & Alex Papp, MD
Monday, August 14 | 5:00 p.m. PT

This fascinating webinar explores the effects of ketamine for individuals battling depression and suicidal ideation when delivered within a therapeutic setting. Dr. Myers and Dr. Papp present the facts and fiction behind the power of ketamine and the best way to apply these scientific results with patients.

About the presenters: Dr. Rick Barnett, PsyD is a licensed clinical psychologist and licensed alcohol and drug counselor. He runs a private group practice focusing on adults and state-mandated patients for alcohol and drug use disorders and co-founded the Psychedelic Society of Vermont in 2021. Dr. Alex Papp, MD, ABPN and Dr. Julie Myers, PsyD, MSCP work together at Point Loma Clinic, a private out-patient setting. They also teach courses in depression and PTSD in the MSCP program at Alliant.
