Invite Other Chapters to Attend Your Virtual Events

Will your chapter be hosting a free educational online event this year such as a graduate school panel or a resumé writing workshop? If so, simply tag @PsiChiHonor on Twitter or Instagram so that we can retweet/share your social media announcements with all our followers!

A few suggestions: Post at least one week in advance. Remember to include a date, time, and access link in your original post. And keep in mind that we cannot share events that cost money or promote specific products, programs, or services.

We look forward to helping you promote your chapter activities! New to hosting chapter events online? Here is some advice.
