

PSI CHI. THE INTERNATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY IN PSYCHOLOGY

The Psi Chi Research Advisory Committee is seeking a graduate student volunteer to serve as the Chair for the Network for International Collaborative Exchange \(NICE\) project. The Chair position is a two-year term. In the first year as Chair of the NICE Project, you will head a subcommittee of the Research Advisory Committee of Psi Chi. With the help of the subcommittee, you will coordinate a call for proposals for NICE Project, head the selection of a project/s for NICE for the academic year 2021–22, arrange advertising for the project with the proposal author/s, coordinate communication among collaborators, assist with the various research teams collecting data, and assist in the analysis and dissemination of the results from the project. In the second year, you will serve as the NICE past-chair continuing the work on the project created in academic year 2021–22 as well as serving as a resource for the new NICE chair.

To apply, for this position, prepare a cover letter for your application where you detail your interest in the position as well as answer the following questions:

1. What knowledge, skills, and abilities would you bring to the position?
2. What relevant experience do you have in helping to coordinate large projects?
3. Where are you in your graduate education?
4. Can you commit to a two-year term?
5. Why do you want this position?

In addition to the cover letter, please include a copy of your vita. Please email the cover letter and the vita to John Edlund, Psi Chi Research Director (research.director@psichi.org) by March 19. For additional information, please contact John Edlund or Mary Moussa Rogers (current NICE Chair, nicechair@psichi.org).

Sincerely,
