

SPR-Asia Online Seminar

Expressing Empathy in a Culturally Appropriate Way

Date: January 25, 2025 (Sat)
 Time: 10:00–11:30 AM (IST)
 12:30–2:00 PM (HKT)
 1:30–3:00 PM (JST)
 Charge: Free

- The Society for Psychotherapy Research is an international, multidisciplinary scientific association devoted to research on psychotherapy.
- We are launching the SPR Asian Regional Affiliate Group. This is our fourth meeting. The title of the roundtable discussion is: How do therapists adjust the ‘expression of empathy’ in a culturally appropriate way?

Poornima Bhola, PhD
Integrative/ Mentalization-based Therapy

Shigeru Iwakabe, PhD
EFT/AEDP

Marina DiCorcia, MA
AEDP/EFT

Kaori Nakamura, PhD
EFT

Simran Chatha,
PhD candidate
EFT

Roundtable: Empathy Expressions Across Cultures

Adrian Tong, PsyD
ACT/cognitive therapy

Harold Chui, PhD
Psychodynamic/
Integrative

Leon Yang, MA
CBT/Sandtray
therapy

Youngkeun Kim, PhD
EFT

- Researchers, practitioners, and students in clinical and counseling psychology and related fields are all welcomed to join. You do not have to be a SPR member to join. The meeting will be in English.
- A zoom link will be sent to you a few days before the event. For enquiries, please email: sprasiagroup@gmail.com

To register, please complete the Google form:

<https://forms.gle/JEiq65gaQ7yXZXcC9>

