“Everything was prepared to perfection. The staff was friendly, attentive and prompt. A definite must do!”

Watch the ships roll in and out along River Street as you dine inside a former cotton warehouse from Savannah's early days. Inviting and friendly, The Cotton Exchange favors hearty portions of fresh-caught seafood served grilled, broiled or fried as well as a fine selection of steaks, well-stuffed sandwiches and giant salads. Recommended favorites are the Baked Stuffed Flounder with deviled crab and sherry cream sauce and the Seafood Scampi, linguini pasta topped with sautéed jumbo shrimp and crabmeat in a white wine sauce. The views and atmosphere might inspire you to linger, and you're always invited to take your time — the Cotton Exchange is a fine place to while away the afternoon over a bucket of oysters and cocktails.

“A wonderful restaurant and so clever. It's underground, so you have to take stairs down into a cozy basement restaurant with amazing furnishings and warm interiors.”

The Ordinary Pub was a concept long coming. The evolution of our initial idea brought us here - to a unique space, inspired by the beautiful city and people of Savannah, encompassing our passion for art, service, food, and craft.

No jacket required... A casual dining experience with professional service without the stuffiness. We asked our classically French trained chef to develop and produce a reimagined pub fare menu, and boy are we glad we did. Burgers, tacos, fried green tomatoes paired with a 16 oz. Prime Ribeye, Asian inspired Braised Short Rib, & a 8 hour Gumbo & Stone Ground Grits. Whether you are grabbing a quick bite with friends, or wanting to lean into dinner with our award winning Chef Grizz, we’ve got you.

“Drinks were fresh and delicious. Seafood was seasoned and cooked perfectly. Huge selection! Service was delightful and the restaurant was clean and adorable.”

We’re a little more ocean-to-plate than we are farm-to-table. But the truth is, our menu is longer than the federal income tax form instructions. Seafood is king here—fresh cut salmon, swordfish, regionally sourced scallops and on and on and on—but we have plenty to offer for fans of dry-land fare. Hand-cut steaks, the best burgers on River Street, salads and sandwiches. We also make some Southern staples and Lowcountry classics. There really is something for everyone here.

Welcome to Sorry Charlie’s, Savannah’s premier oyster bar, serving fresh local seafood with an emphasis on southern regional flavors. Like Savannah, Sorry Charlie’s is a little bit southern and a little bit of the sea. Our menu reflects that with items such as hot boiled peanuts, pimento cornbread, low country boil as well as po’ boys, shrimp rolls, and the freshest oysters, sourced both locally and from all over the country, served raw on the half-shell or roasted in our wood fire brick oven.

Housed in one of the oldest commercial buildings in the state of Georgia, overlooking beautiful Ellis Square, we pride ourselves on great food, great cocktails, and friendly, detailed service. Come watch a game at the bar and choose from our extensive draft selection, or settle in at a table by a window and enjoy the sunset with a glass of wine or one of our signature rum cocktails. We promise you’ll enjoy your time with us, and we hope to see you soon.

“What a treasure! Great vibe—locals too—not just tourists. I was here on a business trip and it was so nice to have a pint of local brew and some fabulous seafood. Great prices were a bonus!”
“The wait staff was attentive and the food arrived quickly. The space is comfortable and fun with eclectic art and alternative music.”

“This restaurant is incredibly beautiful! It looks like a 1920's Parisian restaurant. The food is equally as good! The prices were very reasonable and the portions are large.”

The Little Duck Diner is a “vintage chic diner” reminiscent of dining cars and diners of the late 20’s and 30’s with a contemporary twist. Inspired by our “little ducklings,” our children, the diner embodies the youthfulness within all of us with the refinement and quirks of an era from which the “Diner” as we know it was born.

The menu consists of our ducklings' favorite dishes, as well as other unique items from around the world. Southern charm meets modern retro eatery.

“Fantastic, authentic margaritas, incredible food and quite the tequila list. The prices are very reasonable and everything was made quick.”

Tequila’s Town takes pride in offering genuine Mexican recipes, and a modern twist on time-tested Tex-Mex favorites to please all palates! The business partners visualized a casual, modern Mexican eatery that was known as “the place to have great Tequila and a good Taco.” The result? We are the place for tacos and tequila: Tequila’s Town.

Serving Savannah’s best Mexican food since 2013, we launched Savannah’s first house branded tequila, the Tequila Blanco from Tequila’s Town in 2016. The 100% premium agave spirit is used in all of our Premium Margaritas and classic tequila cocktails.

Our mission is to serve fresh and locally sourced food. We partner with local farms and conventional restaurant suppliers to bring the highest quality ingredients and make it affordable. Our vision is to create a culture of love and appreciation of traditional Mexican food that is honestly prepared and sourced.
