Gullah Geechee Cultural Experience

Why just EAT in Savannah when you can feed your mind and immerse yourself in a rich cultural experience? Come join us for a special evening in the local community, complete with a historical storyteller, authentic Gullah Geechee dishes and an engaging musical theater performance that will stay with you long after the conference.

GULLAH GEECHEE CUISINE

A sumptuous buffet of Gullah Geechee specialties incorporating local vegetables, choice of three meats, Savannah red rice, fresh breads and tempting desserts at the casual Simply Delicious Soul Food Café, which is reserved just for us.

MUSICAL THEATER

An entertaining 25-minute performance by The Saltwata Players, featuring master storyteller Patt Gunn, Sistah Roz & Bruddah Deandre, who will share a collection of stories that showcase the best of Gullah Geechee folkways, foodways and spirituality.

EDUCATION

The show concludes with a short Q&A on the enslaved Africans that dwelled on the Georgia coast 1748-1864, followed by closing tips from your QRCA colleagues on the rigors and rewards of ethnographic research.

Wed., Jan 30, 2019
7:45-9:15 p.m.
Pre-registration required: $40
BYOB

“We are da’ ones dar’ know de’ stories!”
Patt Gunn, Master Storyteller