

BY-LAWS OF THE RADIATION RESEARCH SOCIETY

ARTICLE I - Membership

1. Application for membership shall include at least the following information: name, educational and training history, institutional affiliations, and publication record. ~~The name of at least one sponsoring member of the Society is required.~~

Explanation: In practice, this is not followed. If necessary, a member of the Membership Committee can sponsor an applicant.

2. Applications for membership and supporting documents shall be sent to the Membership Committee Chair, or another delegated member of the Membership Committee, for review and disposition.
3. The Secretary-Treasurer shall inform the applicants of decisions on membership and grade of membership in the Society. Election of an applicant to a grade of membership becomes effective at the time of notification to the applicant by the Secretary-Treasurer.
4. The name, address, and affiliation of each member of the Society shall be included in the online directory of the Society, to which only members will have access.

ARTICLE II- Dues

- ~~1. Any member in arrears for one year shall cease to be a member of the Society.~~
- ~~2. Delinquent members shall not be permitted to vote or be allowed to register for the Annual Meeting at member rates until indebtedness to the Society is liquidated. Membership-based online access to the journal, as well as reduced rates for subscription and publication, shall be withheld from any member in arrears for three months.~~

Explanation: The policies in the two sections above have been moved to the Constitution.

- ~~1. Delinquent members~~ Individuals who have been removed from membership due to delinquency of dues payment may be reinstated by the Council provided indebtedness to the Society for the ongoing/current fiscal year is liquidated.

Explanation: This is clarification regarding loss of membership.

- ~~2.~~ The fiscal year of the Society shall correspond to the calendar year.

ARTICLE III - Meetings

1. The Council shall determine the number, times, and places of the regular meetings of the Society to be held each year.
2. One of these meetings shall be designated the Annual Meeting. At this meeting there shall be a Business Meeting designated for reports of officers and other items of business.
3. Special meetings can be called by the President with the approval of the Council.

ARTICLE IV - Meetings of the Council

1. There shall be at least two meetings of the Council in each year, at the time of the Annual Meeting before and after the new Officers and Councilors are installed.
2. The President shall convoke the Council in special meetings, in person or via teleconference, whenever the affairs of the Society require it.
3. A request to the President made by six Members of the Council shall render the convocation of the Council obligatory.

ARTICLE V - Scientific Sessions

The Council shall determine rules relative to the conduct of scientific sessions and presentation of scientific papers at all meetings.

ARTICLE VI - Amendments

An amendment to the By-Laws may be proposed by at least ten members in good standing and must be submitted to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Society at least three months before the Annual Meeting at which the amendment is to be acted on. The Secretary-Treasurer shall distribute the proposed amendment to the Members of the Society at least three weeks before the Annual Meeting of the Society. It shall be voted on at the Business Meeting, and an affirmative vote of two-thirds of all Members voting shall be necessary for its passage. Modifications take effect immediately upon approval.

Consideration of having a parallel process as proposed for the Constitution: amendment not tied to schedule of the Annual Meeting? Consensus was that this is not necessary since most provisions of the Bylaws can typically be accommodated by immediate action of the Governing Council.

~~ARTICLE VII – General Prohibitions~~

~~Notwithstanding any provision of the Constitution or By-Laws which might be susceptible to a contrary construction:~~

- ~~1. The Society shall be organized exclusively for the purposes of:
 - ~~(a) Promoting original research in the natural sciences relating to radiation;~~
 - ~~(b) Facilitating integration of different fields/disciplines in the study of radiation effects;~~
 - ~~(c) Promoting the diffusion of knowledge in these fields.~~~~
- ~~2. The Society shall be operated exclusively for those purposes immediately preceding, Section (1).~~
- ~~3. The Society shall have no stockholders, and no part of its net earnings shall ever inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.~~

Explanation: Transfer to the Constitution as it is a more appropriate location for major governing conditions.

~~ARTICLE VIII – Distribution on Dissolution~~

~~Upon dissolution of the Radiation Research Society, the Council shall distribute the assets and accrued income to one or more organizations as determined by the Council, but which organization shall meet the limitations prescribed in Sections (1) to (3) inclusive, of Article VII immediately preceding.~~

Explanation: Transfer to the Constitution as it is a more appropriate location for conditions governing dissolution.
