OrthoVirginia is pleased to welcome
Berkeley Blanchard Martin, MD

Dr. Berkeley Blanchard Martin specializes in electrodiagnostic medicine and physiatry (physical medicine and rehabilitation). She enjoys helping patients by working with a team of providers to determine the cause of a patient’s symptoms and the best next steps in treatment. She aims to help patients improve their quality of life and function.

Dr. Martin attended the University of Virginia for her undergraduate education where she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Art History. She received her medical degree from University of Virginia School of Medicine and completed her residency in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation there as well. In addition to RAM, Dr. Martin is also a member of the American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation and the American Association of Neuromuscular and Electrodiagnostic Medicine.

In her free time, Dr. Martin enjoys being with her family, chasing her two young boys around, playing tennis, exercising, and being outside.

Please join us in welcoming
Dr. Berkeley Blanchard Martin
