New Member Announcement

Richmond Academy of Medicine is pleased to welcome

John J. McLaughlin, MD

Dr. John McLaughlin is an Interventional Radiologist at Virginia Interventional and Vascular Associates (VIVA). He has extensive expertise in Interventional Radiology and a special interest in peripheral arterial disease requiring complex arterial access (pedal, plantar and radial) and complex arterial interventions. He is a member of the CLI (Critical Limb Ischemia) Global Society, joining the ranks with other IR, IC and Vascular Surgeons becoming a "CLI Fighter".

Dr. McLaughlin attended the State University of New York, where he earned his medical degree. He completed an internship at Mercy Hospital and then his radiology residency at the University of Maryland. He obtained his fellowship in Interventional Radiology from University of South Florida and is board certified in Diagnostic Radiology, Vascular and Interventional Radiology. He joined VIVA in 1999.

In his spare time, Dr. McLaughlin enjoys spending time with his family, playing the classical guitar and practicing daily meditation, both sitting and active forms. He is looking forward to working at the new location in Richmond and being part of RAM.
