New Member Announcement

Commonwealth Dermatology is pleased to welcome Sarah Skillman, MD

Dr. Sarah Skillman completed her undergraduate studies in biology and microbiology at the University of Georgia, graduating magna cum laude with honors. She earned her medical degree from the Indiana University School of Medicine where she was inducted into the Alpha Omega Alpha medical honor society. She went on to complete a transitional medicine internship at Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis and her dermatology residency at Indiana University School of Medicine. As a dermatology resident, she served as chief resident and she was awarded the Cleveland Francoeur Outstanding Dermatology Resident of the Year award. She then completed a fellowship in Pediatric Dermatology at Indiana University School of Medicine. Prior to joining Commonwealth Dermatology, Dr. Skillman was an Assistant Clinical Professor of Dermatology and Pediatric Dermatology at Indiana University School of Medicine.

Dr. Skillman is a Diplomate of the American Board of Dermatology, a fellow of the American Academy of Dermatology and a member of the Society of Pediatric Dermatology and of the Pediatric Dermatology Research Alliance. Dr. Skillman has presented at the national meetings for the American Academy of Dermatology and the Society of Pediatric Dermatology. She has published original research in peer-reviewed scientific journal.

Dr. Skillman is excited to move to the Richmond area after spending several years on the West Coast and in the Mid-West. She looks forward to exploring the city with her husband, her two children and her dog.
