New Member Announcement

Virginia Eye Institute is pleased to welcome

Ryan F. Deasy, MD

Dr. Deasy is an experienced Vitreoretinal Surgeon who will be joining the retina team at Virginia Eye Institute in August 2020.

Dr. Deasy received his Medical Degree from The Ohio State University College of Medicine and Public Health and went on to complete his one-year transitional internship at Riverside Methodist Hospital in Columbus, Ohio. He completed both his residency in Ophthalmology and Fellowship in Vitreoretinal Disease and Surgery at the William H. Havener Eye Institute, Department of Ophthalmology at The Ohio State University.

After his fellowship training, he joined the Cleveland Clinic Foundation in 2008 where he served as a staff retina surgeon for 10 years. During his tenure at The Cleveland Clinic Cole Eye Institute, he participated in the education and training of ophthalmology residents and surgical retina fellows. He also served as a Clinical Assistant Professor of Ophthalmology at the Cleveland Clinic Lerner College of Medicine of Case Western Reserve University.

Dr. Deasy looks forward to meeting the specialized eye care needs of patients throughout the Central Virginia Region and will be seeing patients at the Reynolds location after August 15th. He and his wife, Dr. Amanda Deasy (also an ophthalmologist), are relocating to Richmond this summer with their five children.
