New Member Announcement

Richmond Academy of Medicine is pleased to welcome

Mathew Alexander

Matt Alexander is a first-year medical student at the Virginia Commonwealth University School of Medicine and the Academy's Class of 2023 medical student representative to the RAM Board of Trustees. He is also currently a graduate research assistant with the VCU Department of Health Behavior and Policy and an incoming Health Care Consulting Fellow at Leavitt Partners. Prior to starting medical school, he worked in a variety of healthcare and research settings, including at the Duke-Margolis Center for Health Policy, Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, and National Institutes of Health.

Matt is originally from the D.C. area (lives in Northern Virginia), but graduated from VCU in 2018 and thus, considers Richmond his second home. In his free time, he enjoys playing volleyball and basketball, running, traveling, and rooting for the local D.C. sports teams.
