New Member Announcement

Richmond Academy of Medicine is pleased to welcome

Christopher R. Gorman, MD

Dr. Christopher Gorman is a board certified dermatologist who returned to his hometown of Richmond with his wife, Madeline, and three children, Anna (15), Carter (11) and Molly (11), to join Avenues Dermatology in September 2011.

Dr. Gorman graduated from Benedictine High School in 1992. A distinguished graduate of the Virginia Military Institute, he attended as an Institute Scholar earning his B.S. in biology with minors in chemistry, literature and psychology in 1996. He received his medical degree from the University of Virginia School of Medicine as a United States Air Force Health Professions Scholar. Dr. Gorman trained in General Surgery at the David Grant Medical Center at Travis AFB, CA from 2001-2002 and then served as a General Medical Officer/Flight Surgeon at the United States Air Force Academy until 2006. After completion of his military service, Dr. Gorman returned to the University of Virginia Department of Dermatology in 2006 for his residency training and served as Chief Resident from 2008-2009.

Dr. Gorman served as staff dermatologist at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center and National Naval Medical Center in Bethesda and in private practice at Bethesda Dermatology before joining Avenues Dermatology. He holds clinical appointments at the Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences and George Washington University School of Medicine. He is a published author and is a member of the American Academy of Dermatology, the Richmond Dermatological Society, Rotary International, the Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honor Society and The Raven Society at UVA.

Dr. Gorman enjoys cooking, music and singing, running, community volunteering, and spending time (especially outdoors) with family and friends.
