Member Announcement

Women's Cancer and Wellness Institute is pleased to welcome

Ruth B. Felsen, MD, FACS

Dr. Ruth Felsen has joined with Drs. Randal West, Jori Carter and Diane Cox to form the Women's Cancer and Wellness Institute. Their practice focuses on the comprehensive care of women with gynecologic and breast cancer as well as benign breast conditions and complex benign gynecologic conditions.

Breast services include diagnosis and treatment of benign and malignant breast disease. For patients who have been diagnosed with breast cancer, Dr. Felsen performs surgical procedures and additionally coordinates all components of breast cancer care. The practice also provides breast and gynecologic cancer risk assessment, genetic counseling and genetic testing services.

Dr. Felsen looks forward to serving patients of Women's Cancer and Wellness Institute by providing timely, efficient and compassionate care to patients with breast health concerns.

Originally from Silver Spring, Maryland, Dr. Felsen completed her undergraduate education at the University of Maryland College Park. She received her medical degree from Harvard Medical School. She completed her general surgery residency at Massachusetts General Hospital. Additionally, she completed an international clinical fellowship in general surgery at the Hospital Luis Vernaza in Guayaquil, Ecuador, and at the Hospital Eugenio Espejo in Quito, Ecuador. She is also fluent in Spanish.

Dr. Felsen is board certified by the American Board of Surgery and has served as an Examiner for the Board of Surgery. She serves as the Medical Director of the Breast Program at the Sarah Cannon Cancer Institute at CJW Medical Center, Chair of the Breast Leadership Committee and is a member of the Multidisciplinary Cancer Committee, Ethics Committee and the Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee at CJW Medical Center. She is also a Board Member of the Hawthorne Foundation which provides financial and emotional support to cancer patients and their families.
