

Richmond Academy of Medicine

New Member Announcement

Radiology Associates of Richmond is pleased to welcome

E. Paul Iverson, MD

Dr. Elden Paul Iverson recently moved to Richmond to practice as an interventional radiologist with Radiology Associates of Richmond. He received his medical degree from Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center School of Medicine. Following his medical education, he completed his transitional year and radiology residency at Aurora St. Luke's in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Additionally, he completed a fellowship in Vascular and Interventional Radiology at University of New Mexico.

His clinical interests lie in the areas of trauma intervention and interventional oncology. He practices at Richmond's HCA facilities including Chippenham, Johnston-Willis, and the Henrico Doctors' campuses. Additionally, he practices at Spotsylvania and Southside Regional Medical Center.

In addition to Richmond Academy of Medicine, Dr. Iverson is also a member of the Society of Interventional Radiology and the American College of Radiology.

Outside of work, he is very involved in his religion and enjoys spending time outdoors with his wife and 5 children. He also enjoys trying new foods across Richmond's burgeoning food scene and playing board games.
