Member Announcement

Please join us in welcoming

Erin Wisman, MD

Dr. Wisman moved to Richmond in 2017 to join Virginia League for Planned Parenthood as their Director of Primary Care Services and Transgender Health Services Program Director. A native of Charlottesville, she is thrilled to be back in Virginia.

Board-certified in Family Medicine since 2015, she received her medical degree from Wake Forest University School of Medicine and completed her Family Medicine Residency at Brown University in 2015. Before moving to Richmond, Dr. Wisman provided full-spectrum family medicine at a federally-qualified health center in West Warwick, RI. Dr. Wisman has special interests in health equity, reproductive justice, HIV prevention, transgender medicine and preventive care. She is excited to be heading up the Primary Care team at Virginia League for Planned Parenthood, where sees adults and adolescents in their Richmond office for a variety of primary and reproductive health care issues.
