The Renal Physicians Association (RPA) has produced a tool entitled “Nephrology CPT Reference Codes and Documentation Guidelines.” As the title describes, this pocket-sized tool contains tables and lists of documentation guidelines and the key exam elements needed to properly code office and hospital visits for patients who have advanced chronic kidney disease.