NOAH SCALIN - ART OF INNOVATION Keynote

This is not about “getting out of the box” or coming up with “Big Ideas”. It is about being able to draw out the inherent creative potential in any situation.

Noah Scalin is the first artist-in-residence at the Virginia Commonwealth University School of Business. He is creator of the Webby Award winning project Skull-A-Day and the collaborative science fiction universe & performance art project League of Space Pirates. His fine art has been exhibited in museums and galleries internationally, including the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, Mütter Museum and Krause Gallery in NYC. His work has been featured in dozens of publications including Fast Company, Hi-Fructose, Juxtapoz, Beautiful/Decay, USA Today, The Telegraph, and the New York Times. Noah founded Another Limited Rebellion an art & innovation consulting firm and is a sought after public speaker on creativity. He is the author of six books, including most recently Creative Sprint – which he co-wrote with his sister/business partner Mica Scalin.

ART OF INNOVATION introduces The Big Seven keys to generating creative energy that anyone can employ. Through an engaging presentation of his jaw-dropping artwork, Noah Scalin pulls back the curtain and shares the processes and practices that he developed to generate momentum and consistently bring new, unique approaches to his work. He explains how anyone can grow their creative muscles through simple practices that will help you become a better creative problem solver at work and in life. This highly-motivational keynote provides practical tools for getting unstuck anytime, any place. To close the talk the entire audience is given a hand-on experience that allows everyone to immediately try this out for themselves.

“Noah is engaging, thought provoking and entertaining. He really pushed me to be more observant and creative in my job and community.”
