

RESERVE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

Fully Fund the Reserve Components IMA Program Resolution No. 17-20

WHEREAS, Individual Mobilization Augmentee (IMA) programs make significant contributions to meeting the Reserve Component's' wartime requirements and peacetime operations; and

WHEREAS, IMA augment Active Component organizations with wartime manning above their peacetime strength authorizations; and

WHEREAS, for example, most IMAs in the Army Reserve are compensated for only 12 days of annual training each year, with no IDT pay authorized; and

WHEREAS, without adequate funding for training, IMA's will suffer a reduced level of readiness,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Reserve Officers Association of the United States, chartered by Congress, support legislation, policies, procedures and funding for all Individual Mobilization Augmentee (IMA) programs to fully meet the strength and training levels of 100 percent of the validated authorized positions.
