

Fund Reserve Component Military Construction
(RC Funding & Organization)
Resolution 19-21

WHEREAS, the Reserve Components (RC) are serving the key function of commanding and controlling military installations, thereby freeing Active Component forces for other vital missions, enhancing military readiness, while enabling the nation to maintain its investment in these military assets; and

WHEREAS, the RC train for and perform a vital national security role which requires adequate and modern resources and facilities; and

WHEREAS, the backlog of construction projects in support of ongoing missions has grown while funds have supported Overseas Contingency Operations; and

WHEREAS, morale and combat readiness are significantly degraded by inadequate facilities; and

WHEREAS, RC commanders require the same degree of autonomous budget control as their Active Component counterparts;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that ROA chartered by Congress, urge the Department of Defense and the military departments to ensure that the Reserve Component commanders of military installations receive adequate military construction funding to aggressively address backlogs.
