Fellowships 2024-25

The General Fellowship Programme
The Barbro Klein Fellowship Programme
The Global Horizons Fellowship Programme

Located in the Botanic Garden in Uppsala, the Swedish Collegium for Advanced Study (SCAS) is a national institute for advanced study. For the academic year 2024-25 the Collegium offers residential fellowships for senior and early-career scholars from all countries. The fellowships give scholars the opportunity to concentrate on their own research interests, free from the teaching and administrative obligations of ordinary university life. Fellows are, however, expected to be active members of the scholarly community of the Collegium and to participate in seminars and other academic events beyond their own fields of specialization. Scholars may apply for a full academic year (September – June) or one semester.

Fellows receive a monthly salary. All Fellows have their own fully equipped office, and the Collegium will provide and pay for accommodation for those who do not live in the Stockholm–Uppsala region. The collections of the Carolina Rediviva Library and other scientific facilities at Uppsala University are situated nearby.

The General Fellowship Programme
This programme, mainly in the humanities and social sciences, is open to scholars from all countries and research fields.

The Barbro Klein Fellowship Programme
This programme is open to scholars from across disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, with an emphasis on research on cultural and social diversity, cultural heritage and creativity, societal structures and public resistance, and varieties of cultural expressions in local and global perspective.

The Global Horizons Fellowship Programme
This programme is open to scholars from all countries, engaged in research in the field of global governance. It revolves around three thematic areas: Global Knowledge Cultures and Regimes; Global Political Predicaments; and Global Futures.

The eligibility criteria differ between programmes, and between senior/early-career positions. For full details about the programmes, the eligibility criteria and how to apply, please see: www.swedishcollegium.se

The application deadline is 1 June 2023.
