ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Southern Association for College Student Affairs.

ARTICLE II. VISION STATEMENT

The Southern Association for College Student Affairs is committed to being the preeminent generalist organization for practitioners, educators, and students engaged in the student affairs profession.

ARTICLE III. MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Southern Association for College Student Affairs is to advance:

- opportunities for professional development;
- scholarship, research, and ethical practice; and
- understanding of issues impacting students and the student affairs profession, while fostering our Core Values of Inclusiveness, Professionalism, and Collegiality.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP

The members of this Association shall be composed of four (4) types of members. All members, except as otherwise specified, shall be from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia. The type of membership and qualifications shall be:

Section 1. Regular membership. Any professional who is devoting at least one-half time supporting the work of higher education in a non-profit capacity is eligible for regular membership. Regular members shall pay dues, may vote, and hold elected or appointed office.

Section 2. Associate Membership. Any person who is employed at least half-time supporting the work of higher education in a for-profit capacity or works in higher education outside the states listed in this article is eligible for associate membership. Members who retire or change positions and no longer meet the criteria for Regular membership are also eligible for Associate membership. Associate members shall pay dues. They may serve as members of committees.

Section 3. Student Membership. A student enrolled an undergraduate program, in a college student affairs curriculum or in a closely related field is eligible for student membership regardless of location. Student members pay dues may not hold elected office, but may vote and hold appointed office.

Section 4. Honorary Lifetime Membership. Individuals no longer eligible for regular membership who have been members of the Association for a significant number of years and have made notable contribution to SACSA and the college student affairs profession may be elected to honorary lifetime membership by the Executive Council. Honorary members shall not vote, hold office or pay dues.

ARTICLE V. DUES AND PAYMENT

Section 1. Dues. The annual dues for regular, associate, and student members of the Association shall be recommended and voted on by the Executive Council after consultation via the webpage and/or electronic mail with the general membership. Dues for student members shall be less than those for regular and associate members. The membership year runs for twelve months from the date that dues are paid. The Executive Director will administer membership procedures established by the Executive Council.

Section 2. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association shall be from January 1-December 31.

Section 3. Failure to Pay Dues. The Executive Director shall notify each member about the payment of dues according to approved procedures. Members who do not pay dues as billed are dropped from the membership roll and deleted from the mailing list.

ARTICLE VI. ELECTED OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The elected officers of this Association shall be a President, a President-Elect, the immediate past President, Vice President of Professional Development, Vice President of Marketing, Vice President of Member Engagement, Vice President of Scholarship and Research and two Members-at-Large.

Develop, plan and implement a training curriculum and session for all new SACSA committee leadership during the annual conference or special program;

Devise a communication strategy where committee chairs provide semi-annual updates on committee progress and planning;

Support the strategic plan of the Organization by taking on additional duties as assigned.

Section 6. Vice presidents and the members-at-large, in consultation with the President and other members of the Executive Council should assess responsibilities on a regular basis to meet the Association's needs.

Section 7. Funds. The elected officers may request the President of the Association to include in the budget presented to the Executive Council for its approval an allocation of funds to implement their programs. They shall not exceed the approved amount without special prior approval, by a majority vote, of the Executive Council. A written account of the expenditures of these funds shall be included in their annual reports.

Section 8. Vacancies. If the Presidency shall become vacant, the President-Elect shall become President and shall serve out the remainder of the term of the President whom he or she replaces, as well as the term for which he or she was elected. In the event of a vacancy in the office of President-Elect, the Nominating Committee shall fill the position through a special election by the membership or through the procedures as established by Article VII. The method used by the Nominating Committee must be approved by the Executive Council. If the office of a Vice President or a Member-at-Large becomes vacant, the vacancy shall be filled by nomination and election by the remaining members of the Executive Council. The officer so elected shall only serve the unexpired term of office.

ARTICLE VII. EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section 1. The Executive Council shall consist of the President, the President-elect, the immediate Past President, the four Vice Presidents, and the two Members-at-Large. The Executive Director, Conference Chair, and Presidential Scholar shall be ex officio members. The President, in consultation with the Executive Council, shall determine which, if any, committee chairs or appointed officers shall attend Executive Council meetings. Only elected officers shall vote at the Executive Council meetings.

Section 2. Duties. The Executive Council shall serve as a board for the formulation and recommendation of policies to the Association, shall act for the Association between business sessions of the annual conferences, shall have the power to propose amendments to the By-laws, and shall carry on such business for the Association as shall be specifically delegated by the Bylaws and by the Association. The Executive Council, through the President-Elect, shall maintain liaison with the Foundation.

Section 3. Removal from Office. The Executive Council, by vote of two-thirds of its total membership, may remove any officer for cause in the event that such a person does not fulfill the obligations of the position in terms of attending meetings or otherwise participate in the responsibilities of the Executive Council to conduct the business of the Association. Any vacancy created in this manner shall be filled in accordance with the procedures contained in Article V, Section 8.

ARTICLE VIII. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Nominating Committee. The Executive Council shall elect a Nominating Committee which shall consist of not more than five (5) nor less than three (3) regular Association members in good standing.

Section 2. Procedure. Nominations and election procedures shall be as prescribed in these By-laws and the SACSA Policy Manual. Additional procedures as necessary may be established by the Nominating Committee and approved by the Executive Council.

Section 3. Nominations. Approximately ninety (90) days prior to the annual conference, the Nominating Committee shall call for nominations from the membership for positions to be filled (President-elect, Vice Presidents. Members-at-Large). The call for nominations shall be publicized by email, on the Webpage and through other electronic media. In creating a pool of nominees, the Committee is not limited to those received from the membership; no member of the Committee, however, shall be eligible for nomination. In selecting nominees for the ballot, the Committee shall consider qualifications for office, including Association participation and performance, as well as representation of membership (gender, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, intuitional type (private and public) and geographic areas of the SACSA region). The Committee shall make every effort to select a minimum of two (2) candidates to be placed on the ballot for each position.

When possible, no later than forty-five (45) days prior to the annual conference, the Committee shall submit the slate of candidates with background information on each to the, the Executive Director of the Association, and the Executive Council. The background information shall be in a consistent format for all candidates and shall be used in the online voting process described below.

The Vice President of Marketing, coordinating with the Executive Director of the Association shall make arrangements for an online election process to be carried out by utilizing an online platform approved by the Executive Council. The process shall ensure that only members in good standing as of September 15 prior to the election can cast votes.

Section 4. Balloting. No later than thirty (30) days prior to the annual conference, the Webmaster shall initiate the voting process on an online platform approved by the Executive Council. The online ballot shall contain the background information on each candidate developed by the Nominating Committee. Voting shall cease no later than ten (10) days prior to the annual conference.

Section 5. Certification of election results. The Executive Director of the Association shall have primary responsibility to ensure that elections are carried out in a manner that provides ample opportunity for the registered membership to cast votes, and that the votes are accurately counted and reported to the Executive Committee. To this end, the Executive Director will work with the Chair of the Nominating Committee, and the Vice President of Marketing as described in Section 3 above.

After voting has been completed (and no later than nine days prior to the annual conference), the SACSA Webmaster (or designee) shall send a report to the Executive Director that details the results of the election. No later than five days prior to the annual conference the Executive Director shall either (1) certify that the election results are valid, or (2) identify any inconsistencies that may be evident. If the results are valid, the Executive Director shall report the election results immediately to the President for appropriate notification to others.

In the event of a tie between candidates for a particular position after the Executive Director has certified the election results, the Executive Council shall decide the outcome of the election. If any member of the Executive Council is one of the candidates on the ballot involved in the tie, that individual shall abstain from participating in the Executive Council's process for deciding the outcome of that particular election.

In the case of minor inconsistencies, the Executive Director shall attempt to resolve the issues and certify the election results as soon as possible. If major inconsistencies are noted, the Executive Council shall be notified as soon as possible, and the Council shall determine how to resolve the issues.

Section 6. Announcement of Election. As soon as possible after certification of the election results by the Executive Director of the Association, and prior to the annual conference if possible, the Vice President of Marketing shall announce the results of the election through Online Media. In addition, the election results shall be announced at the opening business session of the annual conference.

ARTICLE IX. MEETINGS

Section 1. Annual Conference. Unless prevented by a national emergency, there shall be an annual conference at which the annual business session shall be conducted, the time and place of each conference to be determined by the Executive Council.

Section 2. Executive Council. The Executive Council shall determine its meeting times and places but will always have two or more meetings at the annual conference. A majority of the voting membership of the Executive Council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, provided proper notice of the business session has been given.

ARTICLE X. PUBLICATIONS' EDITORS, APPOINTED OFFICERS/COMMITTEES

Section 1. Appointments. The President, with prior approval of the Executive Council, shall appoint all standing committee chairs and special positions as deemed advisable to carry out the purposes of the Association. Persons in all appointed positions shall have been Association members in good standing for at least two (2) years prior to their appointment and shall maintain their membership during their term of office. Standing Committee chairs shall have a two (2) year term limit beginning and ending at the annual conference with the exception of the Journal Editor(s) who will serve a three term with the third year being a transition year to assist the incoming Editor(s). Due to the special nature of the Special Positions there shall be no term limit for these positions. All Standing Committee and Special Positions are outlined in Section 6 and Section 7.

Section 2. Training. Committee chairs and other appointed officers shall attend a training session at the annual conference.

Section 3. Reporting. All committee chairs and other appointed officers shall submit to the President and the Executive Director a list of goals and objectives for the year, and then follow up with a written annual report and description of procedures.

Section 4. Funds. The Journal Editor, Historian, and all committee chairs may request the President of the Association to include in the budget presented to the Executive Council for its approval an allocation of funds to implement their programs. They shall not exceed the approved amount without special prior approval, by a majority vote, of the Executive Council. A written accounting of the expenditure of these funds shall be included in their annual reports.
