

Workforce Readiness Excellence Award

Springfield Area Human Resources Association

The Springfield Area Human Resources Association (SAHRA) Workforce Readiness Committee would like to recognize individuals for their outstanding efforts to promote workforce development. This award recognizes the individual that exemplifies the goal to insure that the workforce of today and tomorrow has the skills, competencies and behaviors necessary to succeed in the workplace.

To be eligible for consideration, you must be a SAHRA member in good standing and participate in programs that promote workforce readiness. Examples include:

- Mock Interviews
- Mentor Programs
- Partnership programs with Community or Government Resources
- Presentations to classrooms or organizations
- Clothing drives
- Resume workshops

Applications will be reviewed by the Workforce Readiness Committee and submitted to the SAHRA Board for final approval.

2016 Applications should be submitted no later than November 25, 2016 to:

Samantha Tyler

Workforce Readiness Committee Chair

workforce@sahramo.org

Thank you for your participation!

Contact Name:

Company Name:

Address:

City:

State:

Zip Code:

Phone:

Email:

Describe what program(s) that you have participated in this year that promote Workforce Development (either through your organization or on your own):

Why do you believe it is important to be involved in Workforce Readiness programs in our community?

What ideas do you have for the Workforce Readiness Committee for 2017?