SBAND DEFINITION REGARDING VOLUNTARY PRO BONO PUBLICO SERVICE FOR PURPOSES OF A RECOGNITION PROGRAM

(Modeled after Rule 6.1 of the ABA 's Model Rules of Professional Conduct)

Every lawyer has a professional responsibility to provide legal services to those unable to pay. A lawyer should aspire to render at least 50 hours of pro bono publico legal services per year.

In fulfilling this responsibility, the lawyer should:

- (a) provide a substantial majority of the 50 hours of legal services without fee or expectation of fee to:
  - (1) persons of limited means; or
  - (2) charitable, religious, civic, community, governmental, and educational organizations in matters that are designed primarily to address the needs of persons of limited means; and

- (b) provide any additional services through:
  - (1) delivery of legal services at no fee or substantially reduced fee to individuals, groups, or organizations seeking to secure or protect civil rights, civil liberties, or public rights, or charitable, religious, civic, community, governmental, and educational organizations in matters in furtherance of their organizational purposes, where the payment of standard legal fees would significantly deplete the organization's economic resources or would be otherwise inappropriate;
  - (2) delivery of legal services at a substantially reduced fee to persons of limited means; or
  - (3) participation in activities for improving the law, the legal system, or the legal profession,

In addition, a lawyer should voluntarily contribute financial support to organizations that provide legal services to persons of limited means.

NOTE: The purpose of this policy is to provide a definition of what is considered pro bono service for purposes of creating and implementing the Justice for All Lawyer Program.
