South Carolina

A climate of stability. A wealth of solutions.

SCCIA membership allows you to benefit from an association dedicated to promoting and supporting the captive industry in South Carolina.

Education and Conferences – SCCIA members receive reduced rates to our annual conference and other educational offerings. SCCIA hosts a number of webinars each year, free to members, designed to keep you informed and educated on the captive industry.

- ❖ The 20th Annual SCCIA Executive Educational Conference – September 10–12, 2019 at The Hyatt Place in beautiful downtown Charleston, SC.

Networking and Professional Development – SCCIA members represent captive insurance company owners domiciled in South Carolina as well as a wide variety of service providers specializing in the captive insurance industry, including: Accounting, Actuarial, Captive Management, Financial and Legal services. SCCIA membership also includes complimentary access to all Friendly Society Breakfasts, which take place throughout the year in Charleston.

Connections and Publicity – SCCIA updates membership on changes and developments within the industry via electronic alerts. Members have access to the membership directory and have direct contact with the association office for a variety of resources. SCCIA keeps you informed about industry trends, state and national legislative issues, best practices, and more.

Legislative Representation – The SCCIA actively partners with the legislature and Department of Insurance to promote captive friendly legislation. Members of SCCIA receive timely updates on significant legislative and regulatory issues affecting the captive industry on a federal and state level. The SCCIA contracts with a team of registered lobbyists to represent our members and interests at the State House.

The South Carolina Captive Insurance Association offers a complimentary year of membership to all new captive insurance companies.
