S.C. Economic Developers' Association announces 2013-14 board, officers

COLUMBIA, S.C. – June 4, 2013 – The South Carolina Economic Developers' Association (SCEDA) announced its 2013-14 board of directors and officers during the organization's annual conference. Jeff McKay with the North Eastern Strategic Alliance will serve as president.

"I consider it a true honor to serve in this capacity," said McKay. "Thanks to our pro-business legislature, the support of our local elected officials and the hard work done by economic developers throughout the state, South Carolina continues to attract growing industries like advanced manufacturing, life science and agribusiness. I look forward to being a part of keeping South Carolina the most business friendly state in the nation."
