

Elevate Social Work

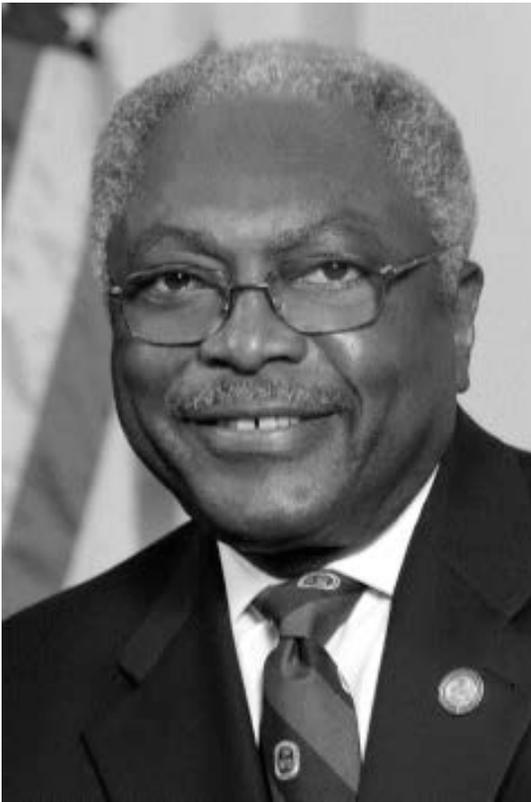

NASW-SC Spring Symposium

March 25-27, 2019

DoubleTree Hotel

Columbia SC

US Representative James Clyburn

A native of Sumter, SC, Representative Clyburn was the eldest son of an activist, fundamentalist minister and an independent, civic minded beautician; this grounded Congressman Clyburn securely in family, faith and public service. He was elected president of his NAACP youth chapter at 12 years old, he helped organize many civil rights marches and demonstrations as a student leader at South Carolina State College, and he even met his wife Emily in jail following a student demonstration.

He remained involved in the Civil Rights movement in the 60s and 70s before being elected to the US House of Representatives in 1993. A nationally renowned leader in the Democratic Party, he will again serve as Majority Whip for the 116th Congress where he will continue to advocate for healthcare equity and rural and economic development.

William K. Hallman

A professor and Chair of the Department of Human Ecology and is a member of the graduate faculty of the Department of Nutritional Sciences, and of the Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey. He is a 1983 graduate of Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania and earned his PhD. in Experimental Psychology from the University of South Carolina in 1989.

Dr. Hallman's research examines public perceptions of controversial issues concerning food, health, and the environment. Recent research projects have looked at consumer perceptions and behaviors concerning genetically modified foods, animal cloning, avian influenza, accidental and intentional food contamination incidents, and food recalls.

Anton J. Gunn, MSW, CDM, CSP - Best-Selling Author | Speaker | Leadership Consultant

For more than 20 years, Anton has been a leadership advisor to some of the biggest brands in the United States of America, including the President of the United States. He has worked with hundreds of leaders and organizations in the public, private and nonprofit sector. He is the Founder of 937 Strategy Group, a consulting practice that provides services to leaders and healthcare organizations who want to build a world-class leadership culture that transforms employee engagement and service outcomes.

He is a former lecturer at Harvard University and the author of two books, The Presidential Principles: How to Inspire Action and Create Lasting Impact (Advantage, 2018) and The Audacity of Leadership (AuthorHouse, 2009).

Now, he is committed to serving and empowering social workers by sharing the Presidential Principles he has learned over a lifetime. His life is dedicated to helping leaders in the helping professions to gain the skills to inspire action and create lasting impact. Are you ready to be empowered by the Top Gunn?

Social Work Leadership Panel:

Jeff Hamm, SCDMH

Kennard Dubose, SCDC

Teresa Arnold, AARP

Ann-Marie Dwyer,

SCDHS

These social work managers discuss their careers, their decision to go into management, and what they've learned along the way.

2019 Symposium Workshop Schedule

Monday March 25

7:30 a.m. Registration and coffee

8:00 a.m. Welcome
Macie Perry Smith, PhD.
President, NASW-SC

Opening Plenary:
Representative James Clyburn,
Majority Whip, US Congress

9:15a.m.-10:45 a.m. Workshops

WK 1 Jim Manning, ACSW, MPA, LISW/AP & CP and Sommer Blair, MSW Candidate, LISW-AP: Past, Present and the Elevated Future. The Licensed Independent Social Worker - Advanced Practice (LISW-AP) credential was established by the State Legislature in the late 1980s. It was a designation to validate macro practice at the highest level. While LISW-CP has flourished in its recognition, this workshop will examine the course of the LISW-AP.

WK 2 Laura Zeisler, LCSW, ATR-BC, Artmaking as an Intervention for Complicated Bereavement in Children. Unresolved complicated bereavement in children can cause potentially serious consequences, including delayed development, increased risk of low self-esteem, limited efficacy, and decreased affect regulation. Evidence-based artmaking can offer unique developmentally appropriate interventions. A case study involving domestic violence that resulted in a double family homicide will be presented.

WK 3 Douglas Bates, MSW, Ph.D. Once a Felon....Always a Felon? A comparative Case Study of the Experiences of Convicted African-American Fathers. There is limited research that explores the impact conviction(s) has on African-American fathers. The study aimed to (a) explore the experiences of convicted African-American fathers since their reentry into society, (b) examined how the fathers described the relationship with their children, and (c) compared the overall experiences of the fathers.

WK 4 Ciera Jones, LMSW, Dismantling the Myth of the Strong Black Woman. In this workshop we will break down what it means to be a “Strong Black Woman” and what it means to be a strong black woman in the helping field. Who do we go to when we don’t want to be, or can’t be strong? How do we take care of ourselves? We will gather to talk about this very real phenomenon.

WK 5 Susan Connolly-Nelson, LISW-CP, Navigating the Complexity of Eating Disorder. Participants will learn the definitions of eating disorders and the changes made in the DSM-5. Case examples will be provided. The presenter will discuss the bio/psycho/social causes of eating disorders and implications for treatment. Participants will learn about levels of care indicated for the specific types of eating disorders and how to assess for the appropriate level of care.

WK 6 ZaDonna M. Slay, MSW, After the Midterms: What’s Next? Voting & Social Work Practice. As a profession that is committed to political and social action efforts, it is important to identify structural barriers that are designed to limit voter participation. This presentation will provide examples of those barriers, discuss the impact on clients, and provide strategies for embedding voter mobilization into social work practice.

10:45 a.m.

Break with Sponsors and Exhibitors

11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Workshops

WK 7 Stephanie DeBruhl, LCSW, LISW-CP, Integrated Child Welfare Team with Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians. (Description to come)

WK 8 Rhonda DiNovo, MSW, LMSW, Kathryn Voss, MSW Candidate, and Megan Wagner MSW Candidate, The Implications of Trauma in Law Enforcement. According to numerous studies, 30% of police officers display clinically significant PTSD symptoms, due to the high volume of traumatic situations they are exposed to while on the job. Facilitators will present an outline of this impact on first responders and provide insight on solutions to this quickly growing epidemic.

WK 9 Stephanie Payne, LMSW, Yvette Sapp, B.S., and Katrina D. Stephens, B.S., Preparing Social Workers Through Anchored Instruction. Anchored instruction is an approach which uses technology to place learning within a meaningful, problem-solving context and can be used by educators in the social work field to help learners apply concepts to real-world problems. This session will demonstrate the use of anchored instruction for social work education and training.

WK 10 Panel on Guardianship. AARP TRACK: Panelists to be announced later.

WK 11 Jacqueline Filbeck, LISW-CP, When Domestic Violence Comes to Work. The pervasiveness and severity of domestic violence impacting the workplace demands the attention of employers, managers, human resources and security staff, experts agreed. Victims of domestic violence lose nearly 8 million days of paid work per year in the U.S., resulting in a $1.8 billion loss in productivity for employers.

WK 12 Sharlee Dixon, LMSW, Mary Wilder, BSW, and Lara Hayes, BSW, Food Insecurity and the Impacts on Our Community. Food insecurity is an epidemic across the country and is becoming a huge concern around South Carolina as well. We want people to be aware of the issue and know how they can be a part of the solution

12:30 p.m.

Lunch on your own

2:00 p.m.-3:30 p.m.

Workshops

WK 13 Lauren Wilkie, LISW-AP, LMSW, What Do I Do With Someone Who Maybe Dangerous? Every day we encounter clients we work with that may be experiencing trauma and their behavior can be dangerous. It is important to be trauma informed, but knowing how to defuse the situation is necessary. Then we will apply TIC Trauma Informed Care and Crisis De-Escalation to homelessness.

WK 14 Rhonda DiNovo, MSW, LMSW, Stigma: The Unspoken Force. Stigma can have devastating effects on individuals and families resulting in serious, long-term negative consequences to communities and society. Stigma can even be perpetuated by those in the helping professions. Openly addressing various aspects of stigma and means to reduce it could potentially bring positive attitude changes towards addiction treatment and recovery.

WK 15 Susan T. Parlier, Ph.D., LMSW, ACSW, and Nicole Cavanagh, Ph.D., LISW-AP/CP, Challenging Conversations: Treading in the Murky Water of Social Work Supervision. Because differences in social identities and values exist in the workplace, supervisors have responsibilities to discuss with the supervisees about their complex and controversial attitudes, values, beliefs, and actions. Using theories and perspectives, the presenters discuss the art of facilitating challenging conversations during oppositional times in our airways and communities.

WK 16 Janet Porter, AARP TRACK Description to be announced later.

WK 17 Geneva Fleming, Ph.D., LISW-CP, MSW, BA, and Yvonne Larrier, Ph.D., LPC, MA, BSW, The Cultivating SEEDS System: A Framework to Increase Mental Health Resources. Mental health is in crisis. Numerous individuals experience multiple barriers in their search for culturally competent, contextual and efficient services. Widespread gaps in treatment, research, interventions, financial resources and trained specialists are common. The Cultivating SEEDS System offers an innovative, re-conceptualized approach to the promotion, practice, and intervention of mental health services.

WK 18 Sylvia J. Roger, BSW, LMSW, Social Work Students and Secondary Traumatic Stress. This presentation will provide an overview of my dissertation proposal regarding the phenomenon of preparedness of undergraduate social work students by their social work program resources for STS in the field practice. It will provide a review of the literature to reflect history, themes, and resources to remedy this problem.

3:30 p.m. Break with Sponsors

3:45 p.m. - 5:15 p.m.

WK 19 Anthony Hill, Ph.D., LISW-CP, CFSW, CCTP, ACSW, Bend Don't Break: Empowering Teens to Make Healthy Responses to Trauma. In response to a surge of teen suicides in the same community, a team of social work faculty and students developed Project Resilience, a community-based resilience initiative. Project Resilience prepares teens and young adults to tap into inner strengths and family and community resources when exposed to a traumatic event.

WK 20 Jessica Yang, Ph.D., MSW, and Monique Constance-Huggins, Ph.D., MSW, MPIA, Environmental Racism: The Abandoned Element in Social Justice. Advancing social justice is central to the social work profession. However, our conceptualization of it often overlooks key aspects such as environmental racism, and its centrality to social justice. This presentation will highlight environmental racism, and provide strategies to respond to it at all levels of practice.

WK 21 Ciera Jones, LMSW, What About When They Die? As social workers, we sometimes experience death. In this session we will discuss how we handle that in the moment, how we adjust our interactions, and how we take care of one selves afterwards. What difficulties have you had? What has helped you get through it? Let's talk!

WK 22 Daniel Freedman, Ph.D., LISW-CP, MSW, and Mary Wilder, BSW, Preparing Effective Social Workers: The Implications for Parallel-Process in Social Work Education. The purpose of social work education is to develop competent social work practitioners. In this regard, programs are required to facilitate a positive environment in which the courses are offered. This presentation highlights the importance of this environment because it impacts the development of effective social workers.

WK 23 Sara delMas, BS VSP, Oliva Fiallo, BA, VSP and Margriet deZeeuw Wright, Ph.D., MSW, Trauma-

Informed Integrated Services for Survivors of Homicide. SC is ranked 1st in the nation for DV homicide. Homicide bereavement is associated with increased risk for depression, PTSD, and prolonged/complicated grief, particularly for intra-familial homicide survivors. Charleston Homicide Early intervention and Advocacy Response Team (HEART) is developing a coordinated community response to address the needs of these survivors.

WK 24 Suzanne Sutphin, Ph.D., and Milik Whitaker, J.D., Impact of Substance Abuse for Child Welfare. Substance abuse has a reaching impact on many social systems including child welfare as DSS has seen a steady increase in cases related to substance abuse. This presentation will focus on the social supports and systems needed to help families affected by substance abuse to prevent contact with DSS.

5:15 p.m. NASW-SC Board Meeting

Tuesday March 26

8:00 a.m. Registration and Continental Breakfast

8:00 a.m. William Hallman, PhD
and Teresa Arnold, MSW

9:00 a.m. Break with Sponsors and Exhibitors

9:15 a.m.-10:45 a.m. Workshops

WK 25 Allison Gibson, Ph.D., MSW, LISW-CP, Alzheimer's and Dementia Concerns: Best Practices for Family Caregivers. This presentation provides practical information from the perspective of diverse practice settings on how best support older adults and their families within the context of Alzheimer's disease, related dementias, and normal aging concerns. This presentation will describe best practices, assessments, and interventions related to the unique needs of this population

WK 26 Alexis Scurry, LMSW and Elizabeth Rummel, LMSW, Human Trafficking 101: What I Should Know. Part 1. Human trafficking is a hidden underground crime that has been in existence for centuries, yet many professionals have not had a basic educational workshop on the topic. This "101" workshop will help Social Workers become better informed by defining and describing human trafficking, address traumatic impacts of this crime and understand the array of services for survivors.

WK 27 Nikki R. Wooten, Ph.D., Nicole M. Cavanagh, Ph.D., LISW-CP/AP, and Rachel Cockrell, MSW Candidate, Millennials' Perceptions of Barriers to HIV Prevention in the South. Using data from reflection journals on HIV/AIDS in the South, we present perspectives of millennial social work students on barriers to HIV prevention and facilitators of the HIV/AIDS epidemic in the South. Implications for social work professionals providing services in community and medical settings will also be discussed.

WK 28 Dr. Richard L. Jones, LICSW, ACSW. How to Deal with Legal Issues. (Presented by NASW ASI Services)

WK 29 B. Sudie Nallo, MSW and Sarah Hunter, BSW, Generation Next: Preparing TOMORROW'S Social Workers for Inclusive Community Practice TODAY! What is community-based social work and what are current models and trends in community social work service provision locally and nationally? Attend this session and learn more about asset mapping, community mobilization and diversity, and participatory intervention development for large populations.

WK 30 Corey Beauford, LICSW, LCSW-C, SW Licensure Exam Prep, Pt 1. This experienced social work trainer will explore content covered in licensure exams as well as test-taking strategies to help you take this important step towards licensure.

10:45a.m. Break with Sponsors and Exhibitors

11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Workshops

WK 31 Elizabeth Rummel, LMSW and Alexis Scurry, LMSW, Human Trafficking 201: What Can I do as a Social Worker. Part 2. Human trafficking is a multifaceted epidemic that impacts the world of social work. It is vital for social workers fully understand their role in the fight against human trafficking. This presentation will equip social workers with the appropriate knowledge and tools needed to effectively address this issue.

WK 32 Brandi Rutan, LCSW, LISW, Palliative Care and Hospice Care, What's the Difference? Presentation goal is to describe Palliative Care & Hospice Care and how they relate to overall patient care. Presenter will discuss palliative care in detail and hospice care in detail and the benefits of these services in relation to how SW's provide services. Overall goal is to have a better understanding of these services and the distinction between the two that the patient's and families overall care/understanding can be enhanced with these services.

WK 33 Rebecca Christopher, MSW, LMSW, L. Bailey King, MSW, LMSW, Melissa Reitmeier, Ph.D., MSW, Aidyn Iachini, Ph.D., MSW, LMSW, and Teri Browne, Ph.D., MSW, Opioid Use D/O and Medication Assistance Treatment: Destigmatizing Our Clients and Treatment Options. With the current opioid crisis, it is important to understand barriers to treatment and how stigma perpetuates them. The aim of this presentation is to discuss the context of stigma as it relates to opioid use disorder and medication assisted treatment and social workers role in the current landscape

WK 34 Corey Ingram, LMSW, Adulting 101 (Healthy Relationships). This presentation discusses consent, attributes of a healthy relationship and how to foster healthy relationships. Individuals can reflect on their values, explore the parameters of consent, and understand how to recognize healthy and unhealthy relationships. The presentation help participants develop and apply skills that contributes to building positive relationships.

WK 35 Betty Wilson, MSW, LMSW, Policing Disparities and Trauma in African American Communities: Implications for Social Work Practice. Police violence against unarmed African American males remains a critical problem in the United States. Using a racial trauma framework, this presentation examines the impact of direct and indirect exposure to police violence on the psychological health of African Americans. Social work practice implications will also be discussed.

WK 36 Corey Beauford, LICSW, LCSW-C, Social Work Licensure Exam Prep. Pt 2. This experienced social work trainer will explore content covered in licensure exams as well as test-taking strategies to help you take this important step towards licensure.

WK 37 Dr. Richard L. Jones, LICSW, ACSW. Practice or Malpractice? (Presented by NASW ASI Services)

12:30 p.m. LUNCH ON YOUR OWN

2:00 p.m.-3:30 p.m. Workshops

WK 38 Panel for Students, I'm About to Graduate, What's Next?

WK 39 Elisabeth Ann Surratt, LISW-CP, Dealing with Feelings. Dealing with feelings" skills help participant relieve anxiety and live without fear. Presentation includes the following: 1) Ways to identify, express, and communicate feelings.2) Assertiveness and alternative behavior styles 3) Self-esteem and how to build self-esteem.

WK 40 Brandi Rutan, LCSW, LISW, Geriatric Mental Health 101. Presentation will explain the common mental health and medical diagnosis for the geriatric population, common evidence based treatment modalities with examples of activities to work with this population, basic statistics for this population, and the need for SW services serving this ever-growing population.

WK 41 Corey Ingram, LMSW, Gentlemen respecting and Interacting in Truth (G.R.I.T.) Healthy Black Masculinity. The intersectionality of race and interpersonal violence creates a very interest dichotomy concerning stereotypes established about men of color and the idea of male privilege. This presentation provides a unique assessment of healthy masculinity from the viewpoint of individuals of color.

WK 42 Bailey King, MSW, LMSW, Teri Browne, Ph.D., MSW, Aidyn Iachini, Ph.D., MSW, LMSW, Melissa Reitmeier, Ph.D., MSW, and Dana DeHart, Ph.D. This presentation will discuss the importance of social work practice in rural settings, and the unique challenges of such practice. Professional attitudes towards rural practice are important to help attract social workers to rural practice. This session will discuss a scale to measure attitudes toward rural practice and implications for rural health workforce education, training, recruitment, and retention.

WK 43 Rachel Hatton, LMSW, Comedy Writing: Subversive Art as Vehicle for Change. Comedy writing, and performance has a long history of social commentary, and is a vehicle of change and healing. This workshop aims to help participants use comedy with clients, and would inspect the role comedians as change agents and glean lessons from humor and laughter.

3:30 p.m. Break with Sponsors and Exhibitors

3:45 p.m.-5:15 p.m. Afternoon Plenary Panel: Self-Care in Social Work Social work educators and practitioners share their strategies for self-care in our important, but often stressful, profession

5:30 p.m. Social Hour to Celebrate Social Work Month! hor d'oeuvres and cash bar

Wednesday, March 27

8:00 a.m. Breakfast Session: Social Work Leadership Panel

9:00 a.m. Break with Sponsors and Exhibitors

9:15 a.m.-10:45 a.m. Workshops

WK 44 Michael Budlong, LCSW, LISW, A Cognitive Based Approach to Counseling for Adolescents and Adults. This workshop will provide an overview of a Cognitive Model of Practice for clinical social workers who work with adolescents and/or adults. In addition to a presentation on the theory and framework of Cognitive Therapy, a distinct set of skills will be offered and practiced by participants during the session.

WK 45 Jenny Smith, EdS, LCSW, LISW, The Role of Social Workers in Higher Education. Social Workers are taking on more roles within institutions of higher education. Learn about how social workers can be useful in assisting students in higher education settings become successful both in and out of the classroom and the many roles that social workers can take on in these institutions of higher learning.

WK 46 Corrie VanDyke, LMSW, and Jodi Johnson, LMSW, Care of the Dying Person. This presentation will explain (from national survey data) What American's Want at End of Life. A brief History of Hospice will be reviewed and then onto explain how to Identify Hospice Eligible Patients. Audience members will participate in a discussion about various Levels of Care/Settings where hospice care takes place. Care of the Dying Person will be examined as well as Transitioning to Alternative Levels of Care/Settings and finally the Death of a person on hospice services.

WK 47 Susan T. Parlier, Ph.D., LMSW, ACSW, Faith Estrada, MSW, BSW, Patti Green, MSW, and Boris Klaric. Social workers have responsibilities to create socially just, safe, and welcoming environments where populations share equitably in opportunities and achievements. This environment allows counter storytelling and reflective practice. The presenters use critical race theory (CRT) to examine ways to promote and enhance transparency and brave conversations in the workplace.

WK 48 Monique Constance-Huggins, Ph.D., MSW, MPIA, and Ann Grace McLaughlin, BSW Candidate, Are They ready for Practice? Students Attitudes toward Mental Illness. Mental illness is increasing in the U.S., signaling the need for greater competence in working with the population. Yet, negative attitudes about mental illness may exist, which can hinder the quality of practice especially for people of color. This presentation will highlight students' attitudes towards mental illness and its implications for practice.

WK 49 Lynn McMillan, Ph.D., LISW-CP/S, Bradley Hamilton, MSW Candidate, and Nannie Jefferies, Angel Charge Ministry: Reducing Recidivism One Bed at a Time. Women reentering communities from incarceration must comply with conditions of probation/parole, secure employment (often limited skill set), housing, health/dental/mental health care resources as well as maintain recovery from addiction and reconnect with families. Transitional-housing programs focus on safe housing first with the added support of community resources to reduce recidivism.

WK 50 Aubrey L. Sejuit, Ph.D., LMSW, LCAS, Med, CASAC-2, CCSP, and Rochelle Goodwin, BSW Candidate, Addiction Does Not Discriminate: A Drug and Alcohol Primer for Social Workers. There is a drug epidemic in this country and addiction does not discriminate. In this presentation you will learn about commonly used drugs and their street names along with warning signs of alcohol and drug abuse. Participants will also be introduced to some recent drug and alcohol trends.

10:45 a.m. Break with Sponsors and Exhibitors

11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Workshops

WK 51 David Luciano, JD, MSW, Ph.D., Veterans and PTSD: Clinical Social Work and Treatment Implications. Veterans experience significant challenges and are often relegated to an inferior status in society. The purpose of this presentation is to explain the barriers that Veterans experience on a daily basis and how our social work profession can play a role in helping and treating Veterans to become better adjusted in society. Based on the National Center for PTSD and Veterans Affairs (2018), 1 out of 22 Veterans commit suicide on a daily basis

WK 52 Shanna Jefferson, MSW, CFSW, LCSW, Clinical Entrepreneurship: 7 Tools for Success. This workshop will provide participants with seven tools for success that social workers can utilize in their entrepreneurial journey. Participants will learn various tips and levels of success for their social work ideas and businesses. The presenter will deliver a powerful message to the audience about envisioning their success while sharing their passions.

WK 53 Beverly Holbrook, MSW, LISW-CP, “Trauma Informed” – The Practice and Application in Social Work. Being “trauma informed” is the basic understanding of what trauma is and how traumatic events affect a person. In the profession of social work, part of being culturally competent is to have that basic understanding of trauma so that as a professional, the social worker can better assess for trauma and if necessary, incorporate the trauma informed practices into their work.

WK 54 Aubrey L. Sejuitt, Ph.D., LMSW, LCAS, Med, CASAC-2, CCSP, Candance Terry, MSW Candidate, Danelle Magalit, BSW, MSW Candidate, and Winfred Walker, BSW Candidate, Ruck Up: Understanding the Needs of Student Veterans. Research done with student veterans in South Carolina will be shared. Moderated by an OIF veteran, there will be a panel of social work student veterans from Limestone College and the University of South Carolina to best understand how we can help student veterans on our college campuses.

WK 55 Susan T. Parlier, Ph.D., LMSW, ACSW, and Rhonda DiNovo, MSW, LMSW, Connection: GWHIZ... Constructing Professional Relationships. Social workers construct professional relationships with people who have different types of psychological, biological, social, spiritual, systemic, and environment problems. Using relational cultural theory (RCT) and other practice methods, participants learn the core components of building safe and connected relationships within welcoming, trusting, and healing environments.

WK 56 Yvette Odom, LCSW, ACSW, The Four Agreements and Social Work: Applying the Four Agreements to Social Work Ethics and Clinical Practice. Clinical social workers are targeted with the responsibility of approaching clients in a non-judgmental manner while supporting clients in their right to self-determination. This workshop introduces The Four Agreements and how these agreements relate to social work ethics to illicit critical thinking and self-reflection in clinical practice and everyday life.

12:30-2:30 p.m. Lunch/Closing Plenary: Raising Cain, Four Keys to Increasing Your Impact as a Social Worker.
Anton Gunn, MSW

2:45 p.m.

Conference Adjourns: See you next year!

NASW-SC Says Thank You to our amazing Symposium Planning Committee:

June Westerlund, Chair

Shirley Furtick

Brenda Hyleman

Deborah Duvall

Victoria Juran

Marjorie Hammock

George Mavroftas

Julia Grimm

Staff: Carla Damron, Juliana Palyok, Aubrey Sejuitt, and Tabitha Jones