

Amendment Four: Research and Information Committee Name Change

- Amendment Champion: Aaliyah Deggs, Research and Information Committee Chair
- Summary: A constitutional amendment to revise the name of the Research and Information Committee to more fully encompass the purpose of the committee and its work toward achieving the goals of the strategic plan.
- Proposed Changes: Under Bylaws, IV Committees, 2. Standing Committees (additions and subtractions in red)

- ~~Research and Information Committee~~

- Assessment and Research Committee

{Reorder committee names as appropriate to maintain alphabetical order}

- Rationale: This amendment will allow the committee to operate under a name more representative of the scope of their work collecting, analyzing, and disseminating data to support the advancement and improvement of all SEAHO stakeholders.