

SER hosts a webinar series to provide an opportunity to engage with restoration experts from across academia and the applied field. We host at least one webinar each month. The live webinars are open to the public, and we hope you will join us regularly. Find more information and register here.

Aug. 27 | 12 PM ET

Failing Forward and Lessons Learned

Jack Putz (U. Florida) and Diane Humes (TX Master Naturalist)

Sept. 10 | 1 PM ET

Generation Restoration - SER Student Associations

Wilmar Ovares (UNED Costa Rica) and Travis Sowards (SER-BYU)

Sept. 24 | 12 PM ET

Positioning Scientists as Relevant and Respectful Partners in Restoration

Elizabeth King (University of Georgia)

Oct. 8 | 12 PM ET

Developing Long-term Viable Stream Restoration: Main Steps, Considerations, and Lessons Learned

Mark Briggs (RiversEdge West)

Oct. 22 | 12 PM ET

Invader Impacts on Soil Ecosystems - What Every Restoration Practitioner Should Know

Ylva Leckberg (MPG Ranch and U. Montana)

Nov. 12 | 10 AM ET

The Contributions of Indigenous Peoples and Local Communities to Ecological Restoration: Lessons from the IPBES Global Assessment

Pamela McElwee (Rutgers)

Dec. 3 | 12 PM ET

Small Dam Removal: Lessons Learned from 20 Years Worth of Dam Removal in Massachusetts

Nick Wildman (Massachusetts Division on Ecological Restoration)

Dec. 17 | 12 PM ET

Thornforest Restoration Along the Lower Rio Grande: Retrospectives and Innovation in the Face of Climate Change

Kimberly Wahl Villarreal (S Texas National Wildlife Refuge Complex) and Jon Dale (American Forests)

Missed a webinar? All webinars are recorded and archived for complimentary member viewing on our Webinar Library.

Thank you to our 2020 webinar sponsor:

