ANSI Announces the 2017 Student Paper Competition

This is the sixth annual student paper competition and is part of ANSI's ongoing efforts to spread awareness among post-secondary students of the strategic significance of standards and conformance. The competition calls for applicants for submissions that exemplify the 2017 theme: The World in 2050. All entries must be submitted by 5 pm ET on April 28, 2017, to lrajchel@ansi.org

Call for SES Volunteers

Volunteers are the lifeblood of our society. Would you like to get more involved with SES? SES is always looking for new volunteers to contribute talent and new ideas! For more information, visit the SES Committees page of the SES website. At this time the Marketing Committee is specifically looking for a volunteer with any experience in graphic design, adobe suite, putting together advertisements, newspaper layouts, etc. The Publications Committee is looking for volunteers to review the journal of the society, Standards Engineering; and judges for the SES Paper Competition. If you are interested in volunteering for any of these, or any committee, positions, send an email to admin@ses-standards.org.

New 2017 SES Student Scholarship Program!

The Society for Standards Professionals has established a Scholarship Program to support students involved in the use of standards in their academic curriculum. We know that each new generation of graduating students holds the potential for helping us achieve our mission of increasing awareness and use of standards.

Conformity Assessment”
August 7 - 10, 2017, Chicago, Illinois

Individual or Organization members may support the SES Scholarship Program. Underwriters Laboratories (www.ul.com) is the first organization to co-sponsor the newly established program. For more information about the scholarship or inquiries on scholarship funding opportunities, please contact admin@ses-standards.org.

SES Refer A Friend (RAF) Program

Refer business associates or friends who you think can benefit from a SES membership, and be rewarded. Through the SES Refer a Friend (RAF) Program, SES rewards your efforts to promote SES and recruit new Members. Entering is easy. Complete the “Refer a Friend” section on the SES Website under My Profile and we’ll take care of the rest. The SES website will track the members who have joined via your invitation.
