

SESPRS 2026 JANUARY MEETING EXHIBIT AND PROMOTIONAL SUPPORT OPPORTUNITIES

41st Annual Atlanta Breast Surgery Symposium January 29 - February 1, 2026

Dear Prospective Exhibitor/Supporter:

We are pleased to invite you to support and/or exhibit at our upcoming SESPRS sponsored event! Reach SESPRS members and meeting attendees while enjoying first-class facilities at the Intercontinental Hotel - Buckhead in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Southeastern Society of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeons is the oldest and most respected regional plastic surgery society in the United States. The Atlanta Breast Surgery Symposium and Annual Scientific Meeting are recognized by many as some of the most outstanding regional meetings in the country. Our 2026 meeting promises to be educational, exciting and entertaining.

Interested companies will find a variety of high-profile opportunities to increase their visibility, for a very reasonable cost. Please see page 4 for our "2026 Promotional Support Opportunities." In return for supporting a program, you will be recognized for your support of the event with prominent signage and receive other appropriate benefits.

Exhibit booths and event support opportunities are reserved on a first-come, first-served basis. A tentative exhibit hall schedule and floor plan (subject to change) for the events is included. We will begin assigning booth space for the meetings about a month from the start of the meeting.

We hope that you will accept our invitation to reserve an exhibit space and support these meetings. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Susan Russell srussell@sesprs.org or Stephanie Garcia stephanie@sesprs.org. You may also call the office for assistance at (435) 901-2544.

We look forward to welcoming you in 2026!

Sincerely,

Susan Russell
SESPRS Executive Director
