Presentation

About the speaker. Amy McGeorge is the founder and managing partner of Peoplr, a global firm of Human Resources experts who deliver excellent consulting and services that drive business results. Amy has more than a decade of experience in Executive Search and 25+ years of experience leading HR consulting engagements for large companies such as Best Buy, AT&T, CSX, Sears Holdings, Kraft, and Time Warner, as well as more than 50 early stage and growth companies across the North America and Europe. She began her consulting work at Hewitt where she led large projects and served as Managing Consultant for one of the firm's largest clients.

In addition to HR expertise, Amy brings significant executive experience to her consulting engagements. She served as a C-level executive at Citigroup, where she was chief operating officer (COO) of the bank's $100 million employee benefits business unit, and as COO of Vurv Technology where she directed all aspects of the software company's global operations prior its sale to Taleo (NASDAQ: TLEO).

McGeorge has completed executive education at the Wharton School of Business, holds a B.A. in Business Administration and Psychology from Alma College, and was awarded the Diplome de Langue from the Alliance Française in Paris, France.
