

SNA-WI FALL CONNECTIONS CONFERENCE

“A Seat at the Table: Food, Culture, and Community”

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29

|                     |                                                                                                                                                                   |
|---------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7:30 am - 4:00 pm   | Registration                                                                                                                                                      |
| 7:30 - 8:30 am      | Breakfast                                                                                                                                                         |
| 8:30 - 10:00 am     | Lab Law - Building intentional culture from the inside outThink 3D - Vaney Hariri                                                               |
| 10:00 - 10:30 am    | Morning Break                                                                                                                                                     |
| 10:30 - 11:30 am    | Feeding Culture Through Fusion                                                                                                                                    |
| 11:30 am - 12:30 pm | Breakfast Reimagined: Navigating New Sugar Regulations                                                                                                            |
| 12:30 - 1:30 pm     | Lunch                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1:30 - 3:30 pm      | Power of Culture - A direct look at what consumer culture costs organizations and what community culture makes possible.Think 3D - Vaney Hariri |
| 3:00 - 4:15 pm      | Connections Forum - Industry and School Forum                                                                                                                     |
| 4:15 - 5:00 pm      | Free Time                                                                                                                                                         |
| 5:00 - 6:30 pm      | Reception                                                                                                                                                         |

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30

|                  |                                                                                                                                                     |
|------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7:00 - 11:00 am  | Registration                                                                                                                                        |
| 7:30 - 8:30 am   | Breakfast                                                                                                                                           |
| 8:30 - 10:00 am  | Power Coaching - Build the practical coaching skills to develop people within the culture you're building.Think 3D - Vaney Hariri |
| 10:00 - 10:15 am | Morning Break                                                                                                                                       |
| 10:15 - 11:30 am | One Table, Many Perspectives on USDA Foods                                                                                                          |
| 11:30 am         | Closing Remarks                                                                                                                                     |

* SCHEDULE SUBJECT TO CHANGE