SRNT Call for 2017 Award Nominations

The following is sent on behalf of Tom Glynn, Chair of the SRNT Awards Committee:

SRNT is currently seeking nominations for the 2017 annual scientific awards. Please nominate a colleague for one of the following prestigious awards:

Doll-Wynder Award for Research in Epidemiology and Public Health, which honors scientists who have made groundbreaking advances in public health, public policy or epidemiological research; research must be focused on describing, understanding or preventing tobacco use or research on the consequences of smoking on populations of smokers. The award consists of a $2,000 prize, a plaque and an expense-paid trip to the 2017 SRNT conference in Florence, Italy, to receive the award and present a plenary lecture on their research. Nominees do not have to be members of SRNT.

John Slade Award honors individuals who have made outstanding contributions to public health and tobacco control through science-based public policy and public advocacy. Nominees must be SRNT members. The award will be presented at the 2017 SRNT Annual Meeting and includes travel expenses to attend the meeting.

Jarvik-Russell Early Career Award recognizes scientists early in their careers who have made extraordinary contributions to the field of nicotine and tobacco research. The nominee must be within 7 years of receipt of their graduate degree. Nominees must be SRNT members. The award consists of a $1000 prize, and travel expenses to attend the 2017 SRNT conference, where the recipient will be the featured presenter in a Early Career/Young Investigator plenary session.

If you know a colleague who would make a good candidate for one of these prestigious awards, please email a letter of nomination to SRNT Executive Director, Bruce Wheeler. Staff will follow up with nominees to obtain CVs and other information requested by the Awards Committee.

Nominations will be accepted until COB (US Pacific Time) November 13, 2015.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Bruce Wheeler at +608-443-2462 x143 or bwheeler@srnt.org.
