

Criteria for Judging Research Presentations

Originality and Creativity	/10
Significance of research including timeliness and salience of research question
Organization (Logical presentation of ideas)	/30
Clear research questions with well-stated objectives, goals or hypotheses
Methods clearly explained and appropriate for addressing research questions
Results are clearly presented and address research questions
Good use of figures and tables to illustrate findings
Clear logical flow from research questions, methods to results
Discussion and Conclusions	/20
Discussion locates research within a broader context
Discussion addresses the research question
Discussion recognises limitations and strengths of study
Discussion identifies questions for further research
Presentation (Oral presentation and delivery)	/20
Energetic, engaging and shows passion for topic
Knowledge of Material	/20
Demonstrates clear knowledge of subject matter
Answers questions with confidence
TOTAL	/100