

SRNT Fellows Application Instructions

Fellows applications and supporting materials are due by August 30, 2019. New Fellows will be recognized during the 2020 SRNT Annual Meeting in New Orleans.

The following information must be submitted:

- 2019 fellow nominee information (above).
- Two letters of recommendation detailing the nominee's contributions. At least one of the letters must be from a current voting member of SRNT, and at least one of the letters must be from a colleague at an institution other than the nominee's (these may be the same recommender). SRNT encourages those writing letters in support of a Fellow to specifically articulate the nominee's scientific accomplishments and the nominee's substantive impact on the field, using the criteria listed below.
- The nominee's CV.
- Any supporting documents that elaborate on elements or highlight achievements either not in or not prominent in the CV. Please be brief and do not include publicly available documents such as publications, letters of commendation, awards for achievement, and reports to agencies.

Eligibility for Fellows Consideration

All Full Members of SRNT who have been member for at least 5 consecutive years and who are at least 10 years past receipt of their terminal degree are eligible for Fellows Status.

Criteria

Substantive contributions to research on nicotine and tobacco will be the primary criteria for awarding of Fellow status in SRNT. Contributions to the field, to dissemination of science, and to the Society also will be considered.

Examples of contributions include, but are not limited to:

Research: Peer reviewed publications, publications in high impact journals, thematic program of research, seminal contributions that have influenced the direction of the field, sustained scholarly activity

Service to the field: Journal editor, study section chair or member, relevant DHHS (or comparable) panel chair or member, outstanding mentorship, developing or chairing a nicotine and tobacco training program, development of tobacco treatment curricula

Service to and/or demonstrated involvement in SRNT: Elected office; service on a committee or task force; service on the SRNT journal, Nicotine & Tobacco Research, as an editor or reviewer; program abstract reviewer; participation in an SRNT Network; presenter/regular attendee at the SRNT Annual Meeting

Submission process

SRNT will accept on-line applications (paper or email submissions by request, please contact bwheeler@srnt.org)

Review process

The SRNT Fellows Review Committee will review the nominations that have been received by the submission deadline and will send final recommendations to the SRNT Board of Directors for approval. Nominees will be notified of the outcome prior to the 2020 Annual Meeting.
