welcome

Spring is almost here, though here in New England that can mean anything. But, as with all seasons, it means a lot of great theater!

StageSource has a lot going on. We released our report from the Diversity/Inclusion/Gender Parity Task Force at the end of February, and are working on some of the initiatives outlined. Please visit our website and take a look at the report. We are working on creating change, and everyone has a role to play. Let us know what you think!

March will see our second GoAudition full day of workshops and auditions. Last year was a great, packed day of tips and tools for actors at all phases of their careers. And this year promises to be even better. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

The auditions are in April this year. Have you signed up?

April 27 is a great day to celebrate the end of March and the start of spring. And save the date: June 29 is the StageSource Theater Conference. It will be a full day of panels, classes, and socializing.

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those less able can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

This year's theme is Reframing Success. It will be a full day of panels, breakfast sessions, and opportunities to meet theater makers from all over New England. No matter what your interest, there will be something for you at the conference.

I will see you at the theater, or at one of our events!

Julie Hennrikus
Executive Director

spotlight on boston association of cabaret artists

Find your light, and shine!

Spring is almost here, though here in New England that can mean anything. But, as with all seasons, it means a lot of great theater!

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its monthly Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those less able can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

Find your light, and shine!

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its monthly Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those less able can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

Find your light, and shine!

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its monthly Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those less able can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

Find your light, and shine!

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its monthly Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those less able can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

Find your light, and shine!

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its monthly Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those less able can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

Find your light, and shine!

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its monthly Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those less able can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

Find your light, and shine!

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its monthly Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those less able can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

Find your light, and shine!

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its monthly Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those less able can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

Find your light, and shine!

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its monthly Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those less able can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

Find your light, and shine!

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its monthly Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those less able can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

Find your light, and shine!

You can find BACA members performing a broad array of musical styles at its monthly Cabaret Open Mic on the third Wednesday of the month in Watertown, MA, at the First Parish Church. Vocalists, members and nonmembers alike, are invited to come with music in their key, or just listen and enjoy an affordable evening of music.

This spring BACA will host its annual weekend-long evening of music. Tickets will be available at www.BostonCabaret.org or at the door.

Throughout the year, BACA reaches out to senior centers, libraries and other community venues where those lessable can experience live cabaret. March 16 at Farkus Hall, sign up on our website.

Find your light, and shine!