Webinar Wednesday Presents: Women in Strategy - Empower by Example

Hosted by Women in Strategy
Presented by Dr. Karen Sturtevant

ABOUT THE PRESENTER:

Dr. Karen Sturtevant is a professional coach, consultant, author, speaker, and inspirational leader. Transcending socioeconomic and denominational barriers, her powerful message of healing, love, and restoration of leadership, resonates hope among individuals from every walk of life. A gifted exhorter and motivator, the core of Dr. Sturtevant's message is "delivering leadership truths that transform the world". She is an avid author and lecturer. Dr. Sturtevant travels with numerous American and International missionaries and has had the opportunity to serve individuals around the world. Dr. Sturtevant founded The Bolser Group, LLC. in 2011, now known as Sturtevant & Associates, with the purpose of providing organizations and companies with excellent leadership/management skills and training.

DEMONSTRATED FACILITATOR, CONSULTANT, AND EXECUTIVE COACH:

Dr. Sturtevant holds a Doctor of Strategic Leadership Degree (DSL) which is an applied, multidisciplinary terminal degree designed to provide effective solutions, rooted in ethics and values, for today's organizational challenges. Dr. Sturtevant's academia of Strategic and Entrepreneurial Leadership combines an extensive survey of theory drawn from the fields of sociology, psychology, theology, organizational theory and other allied disciplines that will further any companies understanding of transformational principles. She is also exceptional at balancing the analysis of human dynamics and corporate systems. Dr. Sturtevant aids in the facilitation and the development of leaders who understand the intricacies of organizational change.

Please click here to view the recording.

* To download the MP4, please click the arrow pointing down at the bottom right hand of the screen. *