

Building Department Effective Leadership Skills Road to success

Building Department Effective Leadership Skills

Webinar

ICC P.P. Course No. 25352

Register at: SVABO.org

Date: June 1 and 2, 2021

Two day three hour classes

Time: 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM Each Day

Program Focus: This program focuses on methods designed to build strong teams. The class is designed for staff members, Leaders, and managers. Elements and techniques designed to assist the managers in communicating with staff and understanding how to use evaluations of employees as a team builder. Learning your strengths as a leader and how to be an effective communicator. Key focus team building.

Speaker Profile

Terry Knox, MBA, CBO is the Director of Development Service for Shums Coda Associates, providing plan review, Inspection, and administrative service to government agencies. He has served as an inspector, plan reviewer and Building Official for the past 50 years. I am a member of several professional organizations and have served on the International Code Council (ICC) Performance Standards Committee, Exam re-write committee, Education committee and the California code 2000 re-write committee. I am an Honorary Member of California Building Officials Past Presidents Association, elected to the Building Officials Hall of Fame and awarded the State of California's Helen Putnam Award for Government Efficiency.

Education:

Master of Business Administration with Minor in Construction Management, Bachelor of Science with Minor in Construction Management, Associates of Arts Degree in Building Inspection Technology, and University of Wisconsin - Madison College of Engineering study . I have provided classes on a variety of building code related and government administration topics.