

More than a FYE: Creating a FACTION

Josh Morris, Community Director

Kyle McCracken, Coordinator of Residence Life

Sara McCoy, Coordinator for Academic Support Initiatives

Historical Context

- Existence of FYE Program at Texas A&M University
- Origins (and Wanderings) of the FYE Committee
- Settling on a Purpose
- Recent History
- Responding to the Call

Community Context

- History of the Hall
- Role of the Hall in Culture
- Community Style and Pricing Structure
- Physical Structure
- Ongoing Interest

Physical Structure Layout

Traditional Hall

Ramp Style Hall

Development and Purpose

- Continued Partnership with ASI
- Creation of New Position
  - Repurposing RA PDs
  - RA Evaluations
  - RA Compensations
- Programming Model
  - First 6 Weeks Focus
  - Year 1 vs Year 2

Recognition and Implementation

- Pursuing Academic Partnerships
- Creating Buy-In
- Marketing
- Relationships between Res Ed and ASI

Recognition and Implementation

- Experience vs Engagement
- Why the name?
- What does FACTION mean?
- What's in the future?

Questions?

Contact Us

- joshua\_morris@housing.tamu.edu
- kyle\_mccracken@housing.tamu.edu
- sara\_mccoy@housing.tamu.edu