NEWS: Salesforce.org Acquires RoundCorner

Shifts in grants management technology continue with the recent acquisition of RoundCorner by Salesforce.org. What might this mean for your organization? How are you planning ahead?

Join a virtual roundtable discussion (foundation staff only) on 1/29 at 4ET.

TAG Members Fund Scholarships to TAG2019 Conference

By popular demand, TAG is developing a scholarship fund for the annual conference designed to waive a limited number of registration fees for qualifying community and family foundations. The scholarship fund will launch prior to TAG2019 in Miami Beach. Watch for details.

Might your foundation support scholarships for smaller peers?

- Donate to the scholarship fund.
- Or, consider joining TAG this year at the $10k "Sector Steward"

Getting Started: Data Literacy

As you begin strategic conversations in 2019, consider a reflection on what it truly means in your organization to "realize impact." More than data tools, realizing impact also means data literacy, open knowledge exchange, and investing in shared infrastructure.

How can you get started in a pragmatic fashion?

TAG's recent research suggests starting with executive-level conversations about "impact infrastructure" as well as prioritizing data literacy. To build a roadmap that fits your organization, find pragmatic suggestions as well as discussion starters in the five-page Executive Summary below:
