TAG 2017: Registration Opens July 15th

Start making your travel plans! Registration will open July 15th.

Visit the TAG 2017 Information page for ongoing updates!

Amazon Web Services Program Open!

TAG members and their grantees are now eligible to receive up to $2000 annually in AWS credits—plus free training and technical support. This is a great deal—the usual NPO programs cost $175 and don't include any support and training. More »

Register for the July 27th AWS Webinar. Learn about the AWS Services Program, nonprofit case studies, scope of the program, who is eligible, and how to participate.

Technology Management Survey

Deadline extended until July 7th! Click here if you haven't participated yet.

Detailed survey results will be available to participants in July. A summary of some of the data will be available to non-participants later.

TAG Releases June Update to A Consumers Guide to Grants Management Software

TAG announces the June release of an update to the recent Consumers Guide to GMS. Because vendors are constantly improving their products between editions of the report, this year, vendor product updates will be published every six months to help you keep up with those improvements.

Be Ready: Boards Are Now Asking about Cyber Risks

Boards are responsible for ensuring management is addressing risk—and risks related to cyber have now gone to the top of their agendas. So much so, that a leading publication for corporate directors, the Financial Times' Agenda newsletter, asked to comment on how board oversight has evolved about cyber and what expectations board members have of management.
