TEXAS SYSTEM FOR CERTIFICATION OF
PEER RECOVERY SUPPORT SPECIALIST (PRSS)

Statement of Purpose
The Peer Recovery Support Specialist (PRSS) credential standardizes qualifications of those working in peer recovery support within the field of chemical dependency, mental health, and/or co-occurring disorders. The following PRSS credentialing guidelines have been developed by the Texas Certification Board (TCB) following proposed IC&RC International Standards.

Statutory Limitations
Certification as a PRSS is not to be construed as authorization to charge or collect fees for services rendered if to do so conflicts with any statutory limitations. Where the statute requires that a PRSS be supervised by a licensed provider, they shall be so supervised.

Principles
Certain important principles have emerged in regard to this credential.

Principle 1. This certification is based on a combination of competency and knowledge about advocacy, ethics, mentoring and recovery support to include academic achievement.

Principle 2. Authority for this certification comes from professionals working in the field of chemical dependency and mental health who share a common concern for standards of competency.

Principle 3. Application for this certification is entirely voluntary.

Principle 4. Certification is offered to both members and non-members of the Texas Association of Addiction Professionals.

Authority
The authority of the Certification Board is derived from those persons who are dedicated to service as counselors and who are most affected by certification. This authority is embodied in the statewide association of alcohol and drug abuse counselors, the Texas Association of Addiction Professionals, Inc. Recognition of this certification is voluntary. The credibility of this certification results from the standards that are maintained, the performance level established by the Certification Board, and most importantly, the competency and integrity of those holding the certification.

PROCEDURE FOR CODE OF ETHICS COMPLAINTS

TCB has a process established to provide an avenue through which persons can file complaints about the ethical conduct of a TCB PRSS and PM/PRC or an applicant to the certification system. This provides a procedure and a forum by which such a professional or applicant may make a good faith dispute and respond to such complaints. This system is used to adjudicate complaints, which, have been found to be irresolvable through other means. Prior to employing the process, persons are encouraged to attempt to resolve the situation through other means, i.e., personally with the PRSS and PM/PRC or through the PRSS and PM/PRC supervisor/employing agency. If this means fail or do not satisfactorily resolve the circumstances, the disciplinary review process may be the appropriate vehicle to address the complaint.

All matters of ethical violation and misconduct shall be referred to the Ethics Committee, which shall investigate any allegations or charges against any member of the Association and/or certified individual. After appropriate study and necessary hearings assuring due process, the committee shall make its recommendations to the Certification Board for review and disposition. A written copy of the Code of Ethics and policies and procedures for grievance, complaints and hearings shall be made available to all members and to any other person requesting them.

Ethic complaints must be submitted in writing and mailed to TCB Headquarters at 401 Ranch Road 620 South, Ste. 310, Austin, and TX 78734.
