About the Recovery Support Peer Specialist (RSPS)

Statement of Purpose

The Recovery Support Peer Specialist credential standardizes qualifications of those working in Recovery Support within the field of, mental health, and/or co-occurring disorders. The following RSPS credentialing guidelines have been developed by the Texas Certification Board.

Statutory Limitations

Certification as a RSPS is not to be construed as authorization to charge or collect fees for services rendered if to do so conflicts with any statutory limitations. Where the statute requires that a RSPS be supervised by a licensed provider, they shall be so supervised.

Authority

The authority of the Certification Board is derived from those persons who are dedicated to service as peer specialist and who are most affected by certification. This authority is embodied as an autonomous body associated with the statewide association of alcohol and drug abuse counselors, the Texas Association of Addiction Professionals, Inc. Recognition of this certification is voluntary. The credibility of this certification results from the standards that are maintained, the performance level established by the Certification Board, and most importantly, the competency and integrity of those holding the certification.

Process for Certification

The initial certification can last up to 6 months. In that time, you must complete your 250 work experience hours. When you have completed your 250 hours, you will submit this application. The 2 years will be cumulative between the two certifications.

Recovery Support Peer Specialist - Initial Certification Requirements

The minimum requirements for certification of a RSPS initial 6-month certification shall include academic achievement and adherence to a code of ethics, including the following:

1	Education Level: Verification of a minimum education level of a high school diploma or General Equivalency Diploma (GED). (Complete the enclosed formal education form and include official documentation via copy of transcripts or diploma).
2	Attestation of initial online assessment The initial online assessment is available on the HHSC Website. You will find an attestation that you must initial to confirm you reviewed the online assessment on page 7.
3	Core Training: Proof of Core training and passing score on the core training knowledge assessment. Core Training must be through an approved certified instructor or training entity. Please provide copies of training certificates from approved training entities.
4	RSPS Supplemental Training: Proof of supplemental RSPS training and passing score on supplemental RSPS training knowledge assessment. RSPS training requires at least 40 education hours specific to the RSPS domains through an approved certified RSPS trainer or training entity. Please provide copies of training certificates from approved training entities.
5	Ethics standards: Sign and agree to comply with the ethical standards pertaining to Recovery Support Peer Specialist listed in this application.
8	Criminal History: Texas administrative code requires submission of a background check.

Recovery Support Peer Specialist - Full Certification Requirements

After receiving the initial RSPS, you have 6 months to complete the 250 work experience hours.

6	Work experience: 250 hours of Volunteer or paid work experience specific to RSPS. These hours must begin AFTER initial certification and be completed within 6 months. These hours must be supervised by a certified Peer Specialist Supervisor.
7	Letter of recommendation from supervisor: Along with a completed work experience form, the Texas Administrative Code requires that the applicant’s supervisor provide a letter of recommendation.
