DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS

The President-Elect shall assist the President and act in that capacity during the President's absence, and shall perform such other duties as are customary to the office or as may be assigned by the Executive Committee. Eligible candidates for President shall have served as a voting member of the state chapter Executive Committee within the prior ten years of nomination for President.

The Secretary shall: keep a record of all proceedings of the Chapter and Executive Committee; notify candidates of their election to office; issue all notices, including the presentation for ballot vote, maintain and keep current Constitution and Bylaws; maintain the Chapter roster; maintain communication with the Society's administrative headquarters; and perform such other duties as are customary to the office or as may be assigned by the Executive Committee.

The Treasurer shall: receive dues rebates, fees and other monies; be the custodian of all Chapter funds and disburse them only as authorized by the Executive Committee; keep the accounts and present financial reports to the Executive Committee periodically and at such other times as requested by the President; publish to the Chapter an annual financial statement; file required state and federal reports; and perform such other duties as are customary for it or as may be assigned to it by the Chapter Executive Committee, the membership or Society's Board of Trustees. Eligible candidates for Treasurer shall have served as a voting member of the state chapter Executive Committee within the prior ten years of nomination for Treasurer.

The Vice President of Government Affairs shall: keep the Executive Committee informed of legislative affairs applicable to the profession; serve as the intermediary between Legislative counsel and the Executive Committee; and perform such other duties as are customary to the office of Vice President of Government Affairs or as may be assigned by the Executive Committee. The Vice President of Government Affairs shall be elected for a four (4) year term with two (2) of those term years serving as a Vice President-elect role under the current Vice President.

The elected shall assume their office and their term shall begin at the conclusion of the ASLA Annual Meeting.
