Quality, Safety, and Value-Based Health Care

Person-Center Care and Collaborative Decision-Making

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

1:40-2:10 p.m. • 2:15-2:45 p.m. • 3:10-3:45 p.m.

The purpose of the summit is to identify the policy priorities that drive TNA's work over the next two years and beyond. Join any of the sessions below to consider future policy opportunities and implications considering technological, economic, social, and political trends within each topic. The goal is to generate diverse perspectives to shape future nursing policy.

These sessions will:

- Inform the policy council's work
- Advise the board
- Engage the full nursing community
- Encourage broad representation
- Direct the future and practice of nursing

Thank you to our policy committee members who will facilitate discussion in four breakout sessions with four themes. Each discussion will be shaped by those participating, meaning every iteration of a session will be unique.

ENVIRONMENTS of PRACTICE

- How will work environments influence nurse well-being?
- What new environments of practice will emerge?
- What policies will shape positive practice environments of the future?

EMERGING PRACTICE and NURSING ROLES

- How will nurses influence healthcare delivery in the future?
- What new competencies will enable nurses to shape the healthcare environment?
- What policies will enable nurses to create the future of the profession?

QUALITY, SAFETY, and VALUE-BASED HEALTH CARE

- How will nurses promote quality, safety, and value-based care?
- How will quality, safety, and value-based care be enhanced through nursing?
- What policies will enable nurses to influence value?

PERSON-CENTERED CARE and COLLABORATIVE DECISION-MAKING

- How will nurses partner with consumers to drive health?
- How will nurses shape the nurse-patient relationship of the future?
- What core nursing values and ethical considerations should drive policy?
