A NEW GOVERNING BODY FOR TPA'S STUDENT DIVISION
Launched at the TPA 2021 Annual Convention

What will I do?

- Partner and connect with peers
- Draft bylaws and pass resolutions
- Participate in advocacy
- Develop convention programming

What impact will I have?

- Provide a representation and a voice for students as the next generation of psychologists
- Work toward enacting social justice initiatives within the state
- Increase collaboration with fellow students across Texas
- Opportunity to pursue legislative interests and gain leadership experience

What does it involve?

- Two-year appointment (may be filled by a student set to graduate)
- Students decide their own governance, but a one-hour Zoom call per month is anticipated—subject to change based on Legislative Sessions and Convention

How do I apply?

Applications are due January 7, 2022. To apply, please visit texaspsyc.org.

QUESTIONS?
Email Kipp Pietrantonio, PhD
Kipp.Pietrantonio@UTSouthwestern.edu
Who is eligible?

One student from each of the below universities:

- Baylor University
- University of Houston
- University of North Texas
- Texas A&M University
- University of Texas at Austin
- Texas Tech University
- Our Lady of the Lake University
- Texas Woman’s University
- Prairie View A&M University
- Southern Methodist University
- University of Houston–Clear Lake
- Sam Houston State University
- University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center
- University of Texas Rio Grande Valley

The Senate—which is based primarily on the APA – APAGS model—will also include a Diversity Delegate, Non-Traditional Student, a representative from TPA’s Academic and Higher Education Committee and possibly a TPA Board Member.

QUESTIONS?

Email Kipp Pietrantonio, PhD
Kipp.Pietrantonio@UTSouthwestern.edu