ASSOCIATION OF BRITISH NEUROLOGISTS

Rules approved at the Annual General Meeting,
19 May 2022, Harrogate
Registered Charity No 1077893

INTERPRETATION

The words and expressions used in these Rules shall bear the same meanings as are assigned to them in the Articles of Association of the Association provided that "year" shall mean the period between two consecutive Annual General Meetings.

As defined in the Articles, the United Kingdom shall mean the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

1. THESE RULES are made pursuant to Article 62.1 and may be amended by the Association in general meeting.

2. NAME

   2.1. The Society shall be called the Association of British Neurologists.

3. AIM

   The aim of the Association of British Neurologists is to improve the health and well-being of people with neurological disorders by promoting education in and the advancement of the neurological sciences, including (without limitation) the practice of neurology in the United Kingdom and Ireland.

4. MEMBERSHIP

   4.1. The Association shall consist of Ordinary, Senior, Honorary, Honorary Overseas, Overseas, Associate, Affiliate, Junior and Student Members.

   4.1.1. Ordinary: Those appointed to consultant posts, or equivalent, in the neurological sciences, and others who have contributed significantly to the discipline in the United Kingdom and Ireland, shall be eligible for Ordinary Membership.

   4.1.2. Senior: Ordinary members on retirement from hospital appointment, from academic appointment and from the practice of clinical neurology shall cease to be Ordinary Members at the next Annual General Meeting and may become Senior members. Ordinary members still engaged in active practice and meeting the requirements defined in rule 4.1.1 but reaching State pension age may elect to cease being Ordinary Members at the next Annual General Meeting and become Senior Members.

   4.1.3. Honorary: Persons of distinction in Medicine and related sciences, resident in the United Kingdom and Ireland, who have contributed to the advancement of neurology shall be eligible for the Honorary Membership. Non-residents of similar distinction shall be eligible for the Honorary Overseas Membership. The number of Honorary Members shall be limited to ten per cent of the current Ordinary Membership and of Honorary Overseas Members to a similar number; they shall be elected by the Association on the recommendation of the Council.
4.1.4. Overseas: Ordinary Members who cease to reside in the United Kingdom and Ireland shall be deemed Overseas Members. In addition, persons of British or Irish nationality who have left the United Kingdom and Ireland to work abroad, others with significant past or present association with British neurology, or others who have made significant contributions to neurology internationally, shall be eligible for election to Overseas Membership.

4.1.4.1. Senior Overseas: Overseas members on retirement from hospital appointment, from academic appointment and from the practice of clinical neurology may become Senior Overseas members.

4.1.5. Associate: All specialty registrars and others pursuing clinical practice or research in clinical neurology or related neuroscience disciplines within the United Kingdom and Ireland shall be eligible for Associate Membership. After completion of specialty training in neurology, and on appointment to a substantive consultant post, Associate Members will become Ordinary Members following approval at the next Council meeting. These posts will then be ratified at the following Annual General Meeting.

4.1.6. Affiliate: General practitioners and Physicians with an interest in neurology, and Associate Specialists/Staff Grades in Neurology, within the United Kingdom and Ireland shall be eligible for Affiliate membership.

4.1.7. Junior: Junior hospital doctors who are not neurology specialist trainees within the United Kingdom and Ireland shall be eligible for Junior membership.

4.1.8. Student: Undergraduate medical students within the United Kingdom and Ireland shall be eligible for Student membership.

4.1.9. Allied Health Professionals: UK and Ireland based Allied Health Professionals including specialist nurses and physician associates shall be eligible for Allied Health professional membership.

4.2. Application for membership may be made electronically.

4.2.1. All candidates for membership must provide proof of professional status as requested by the ABN council.

4.2.1.1. Ordinary/Associate/Affiliate/Junior members should cite GMC/IHC registration.

4.2.1.2. Overseas members should cite relevant regulator registration.

4.2.1.3. Student members should provide their university email address.

4.2.1.3. Allied Health Professionals should cite professional registration.

5. SUBSCRIPTION

5.1. From time to time the annual subscription shall be decided by Council in the light of the financial situation of the Association and after taking advice from the Treasurer.

5.1.1. The subscription shall then be ratified at the next Annual General Meeting of the Association. It shall be paid by Deed of Covenant, or Direct Debit, or Banker’s Order.

5.1.2. Non-payment of the subscription within three months may be considered by Council as equivalent to resignation.
