Taking action for the future of healthcare, grounded in the realities of today

A ROADMAP FOR ACTION

THE BERYL INSTITUTE
theberylinstitute.org
Welcome to The New Existence Roadmap for Action

This moment in our shared history has called on us to act with agility, to rise up and collaborate, and to persevere in caring for others. It also revealed the opportunities we have to build a better healthcare system that meets the needs of all it serves in every corner of the world. For this reason, guided by a global steering team and informed by the voices of our community, The Beryl Institute undertook an effort to help frame a new view for the future of healthcare. The result was The New Existence.

The New Existence is grounded in the evidence that drives healthcare today and will lead us to a better tomorrow by ensuring high quality, safe, human-centered and equitable outcomes. Its principles are based on:

- the proven impact of listening to, communicating with and engaging patients, family members and care partners as integral partners in care
- the critical opportunity to acknowledge and understand the burdens on our healthcare workforce and to care for and support their needs.
- the unwavering commitment to all in the communities we serve to dismantle disparities and break down the barriers to equitable care around the world.
- the clear intention to work better together, collaborate and share learning with one another, through and beyond this moment.

This roadmap is designed by the community for the community. It is open-access and available to all. It is framed not as one-size-fits-all but as a tool for reflection and consideration and a framework for action. Focusing on what we have learned from this moment in time, it is designed to help us rebuild and move forward with agility and strength. This roadmap allows you to determine the best path for you and for your organization. It offers a place to find the resources you need. It also provides an opportunity for a shared commitment to collaboration, learning and supporting others on their journeys. It ultimately represents the foundational ideas on which our community is built and will carry forward to The New Existence.

The roadmap provides four distinct, but complementary perspectives from which to approach this work – Executive Leadership, Experience Champion/Leader, Healthcare Team Member, and Patient, Family Member, Care Partner. It is intended to support you in identifying your needs through a simple assessment process, establishing key action sets and aligning you with a growing, community-generated library of resources to support your success.

These ideas and actions reflect a journey we must take, not just a destination at which we should arrive. They frame a better future for healthcare to which we must aspire and require a consistent commitment to action to ensure. This is not and must not be an initiative, for initiatives eventually end. Rather, this roadmap and associated actions represent an understanding that to achieve the best in human experience, our efforts must truly never stop. It is a commitment we all share and a journey we are inspired to travel together.
A Declaration for Human Experience

Our shared experience over the past year has shifted the foundation of healthcare forever, exposing systemic weaknesses and wounds that can no longer go untreated. Immersed in a global pandemic, we acted with agility and urgency to innovate at a pace never seen before.

Healthcare professionals and organizations never hesitated to respond to the needs of patients and the communities they serve, even as hospitals overflowed with patients, adequate staffing and supply levels grew challenging and exhaustion overwhelmed the healthcare workforce. As COVID-19 cases and deaths climbed higher, the devastating impact of systemic disparities, inequities and injustices faced by people of color and marginalized populations became painfully apparent.

While the world has been inspired by the level of compassion and care that healthcare professionals have demonstrated time and time again, this service and sacrifice has come with a heavy price. With the clouds of COVID-19 beginning to lift, the real impact of trauma and an ever-increasing demand for rapid change is looming over a healthcare workforce that was showing signs of stress and burnout years before the pandemic.

Although these issues are not new, this moment has exposed the shortcomings in our approach and the need for a fundamental shift in thinking and direction. We are now at a critical inflection point. There is no normal to which to return; and those who slide back, either intentionally searching for the comforts of the past or due to lack of clarity on how to push forward, are likely to become obsolete in a new world.

Our current realities call us to forge a new existence that begins with looking beyond the distinct silos of patient experience, employee engagement or community health to focus on the common thread that binds each of these areas together—the human experience. By elevating and transforming the human experience in healthcare, we can create a more effective, responsive and equitable healthcare system that results in better experiences and outcomes for patients of all backgrounds, a more supportive, energizing and collaborative environment for healthcare professionals and healthier communities that break down barriers to care.

We are called to lead courageously with the understanding that we are, first and foremost, human beings caring for human beings. In answering this call, we commit to:

- Acknowledge and dismantle systemic racism and prejudice, tackle disparities and provide the highest-quality, most equitable care possible.
- Understand and act on the needs and vulnerabilities of the healthcare workforce to honor their commitment and reaffirm and reenergize their purpose.
- Recognize and maintain a focus on what matters most to patients, their family members and care partners to ensure unparalleled care and a commitment to health and well-being.
- Collaborate through shared learning within and between organizations, systems and the broader healthcare continuum to forge a bold new path to a more human-centered, equitable and effective healthcare system.

In making this declaration personally and publicly, we stand for all we can and must be in healthcare. In aligning our words and actions to move this cause forward, we commit to transforming the human experience in healthcare for all patients, the healthcare workforce and the communities we serve.
