

The Nurse Practitioner Association New York State (The NPA) is partnering with Falcon & Singer P.C. in offering Estate Planning (EP) for Nurse Practitioners as a member benefit.

The NPA has provided its growing professional membership with the best in terms of advocacy, professional development, and educational opportunities. The NPA is proud to work with the law firm of Falcon & Singer P.C. as its corporate counsel. Falcon & Singer P.C. is a boutique law firm practicing corporate, not-for-profit and social enterprise law, trusts and estates, and planning and guardianship for individuals with disabilities and mental health challenges. Falcon & Singer is a certified B Corporation and has offices in White Plains and New City, New York and Montvale, New Jersey.

In an ongoing effort to encourage nurse practitioners to work with experienced professionals to plan for their retirement and beyond, The NPA is pleased to offer this member benefit to be provided by Falcon & Singer within its convenient New York and New Jersey offices.

Falcon & Singer will provide its high level of estate planning and estate administration services to NPA members at a 15% discount from its regular rates. The law firm's estate planning services include preparation of wills, trusts, health care proxies, powers of attorney, psychiatric advanced directives, and other documents necessary to assist nurse practitioners and their loved ones. Its estate administration practice supports executors who are responsible for settling a decedent's estate with matters such as initiating probate proceedings, assisting executors with gathering estate assets to satisfy an estate's financial obligations, filing estate tax returns, and distributing estate proceeds to beneficiaries.

In addition, Falcon & Singer will be working with The NPA to sponsor "EP for NPs" webinars and in-person estate planning and administration presentations to allow NPA members to learn more about the importance of planning and to meet with the law firm's professional staff.
